VOL. LV OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 3, 1902 NO. 29

FORGET ABOUT THE LYNCHING.

Witnesses For Defense Cannot Remember Incidents

ALTURAS, Cal., Feb. 3.—The Superior Court of Modoc county resolved itself into a Magistrate's Court for a short time this morning to permit Attorney Raker to make an application to Judge Harrington to release Fred Roberts and seven others, who have been confined in the County Jail since January 10th for the murder of the Halls, Dan Yantis and Martin Wilson, without having been granted a preliminary hearing. The application was denied ,the Court stating he was engaged in the case of Brown, and had not time to give the men preliminary hearing. Raker then asked the Court to issue an order to the Sheriff to take the men before the nearest magistrate for preliminary examination. The Court cut him off in a peremptory manner, denying the application, and advising him to take the matter to the Supreme Court for adjudication.

Miss Carrie Kresge, sister of Jerve Kresge, one of the alleged lynchers, was called to the stand by the defense to strengthen the alibi of her brother, May 30th and the day following the lynching.

Her testimony bore out the evidence of the Millers, given on Saturday. She also stated that he was at home all day, May 25th, the day on which it has been stated he accompanied the posse which arrested the Halls on that day.

Witness testified that her brother went to Lookout May 28th, and stayed all the afternoon. This is the day that Hutton had testified Kresge was in Lookout in consultation with him and Jim Brown regarding the lynching.

On cross-examination the witness was asked by General Post how it was that her memory was so fresh regarding the incidents and circumstances connected with the lynching. Witness was unable to give a very satisfactory answer. It is a peculiar fact that witnesses called by the defense have invariably had exceedingly good memories as to the date and incidents connected with the lynching but that their memories have failed them dismally on more recent events.

General Post asked Miss Kresge if she had ever had read to her or heard any of the testimony given by witnesses in this case.

Raker objected, and the Court ruled she might answer, stating that if such had been the case it might have some bearing on her testimony.

C. A. Raker objected to the remarks of the Court as highly improper, and he and his brother came in for a lecture from the bench on the way they have entered objections in the past. The Court said he would send them to jail for five days if they ever added to their exceptions of the rulings of the Court in the future the words "highly improper" or words of similar import.

AN INSANE BURGLAR.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Feb. 3.—Judge Lorigan today denied the petition of H. C. Raymond, indicted for a burglary, for a writ of habeas corpus. The grounds of the writ were that Raymond at the time the crime was committed was an escape from Agnews and unrestored to capacity.

FOG IN THE SOUTH.

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 3.—A dense fog enveloped this city this morning. The weather has not moderated and although the sky is clouded, there is not much hope of rain owing to the cold winds which still blow. Yesterday morning there was a slight shower.

MILLIONS LOST IN A GREAT FIRE IN WATERBURY, CONN.

Twenty Blocks Go Up in Smoke and Many People are Without Homes —Town is Under Martial Law.

WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 3.—For ten hours last night and this morning flames, fanned by a high wind, held sway over the business portion of this city, causing a loss that will exceed $3,000,000. The best business portion of the city forming a triangle bounded on the north by Exchange Place, on the west by Bank street on the south by Grand Street and on the east by South Main street, was almost wiped out.

MILLIONS OF PRORERTY IS SOON DESTROYED.

The first fire, which started in the big store of Reid and Hughes drygoods company on Bank street, was not under control until about $2,000,000 worth of property had been destroyed. About the time the firemen supposed they had the flames under control a second fire broke out in the Scovil House, the city's leading hotel, remodeled by the late Judge E. C. Lewis a few years ago, at an expense of about $75,000, and the establishment was completely wrecked. The occupants of the hotel were forced to seek the street in their night clothes. With the ringing of a second alarm, the entire city was thrown into a panic. There was a fierce gale blowing and sparks from the burning hotel was driven in showers over a great area. The occupants of buildings located in the path of the wind prepared to leave.

OTHER CITIES SENT ENGINES TO ASSIST.

Although the Waterbury Fire Department was reinforced from near-by cities, it was for a time impossible to stay the progress of the flames. The fire in its entirety burned over four acres of the city's best business section. Among the prominent buildings totally destroyed are the block occupied by the Reid & Hughes Dry Goods Co., the plant of the Waterbury American, the Masonic Temple, the Scovil and Franklin Houses, the W. L. Douglass Shoe Company, the Johnson block and the Salvation Army Workingmen's Home. In all, about 100 of the most prominent business houses are burned out.

Rarely have firemen been obliged to contend against worse conditions than those which prevailed from first to last in this disastrous conflagration. The wind was blowing a gale and the cold was intense. It seemed at one time as though every structure in the heart of the city would be destroyed. In some instances the work of the firemen proved of no avail. The Waterbury Bank building at the corner of Bank and Grand streets was saved, although the New England Engineering Company's $70,000 building, but a few feet away, and the Masonic Temple, on the north side of the bank building, were wiped out of existence.

CITY IS PRACTICALLY UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

The city is practically under martial law, the blue uniforms of the National Guardsmen appearing on every side. Details are changed every two hours. The Armory, the City Hall, the churches and other public places have been turned into temporary shelters, hundreds being rendered homeless. When asked if he would call for financial aid from outside cities, Mayor Kilduff said:

"Waterbury, although suffering a grievous blow, will take care of herself, although extremely grateful for the expressions of sympathy that have been poured in from all sides."

The fire broke out almost simultaneously on the third and first floors of Reid & Hughes store. The burning building was located in the heart of the city and within view of many residences which flank the city park or commons. The firemen soon abandoned any attempt to save the burning building and turned their attention to adjacent property. It was of no avail, however; within fifteen minutes the Salvation Army barracks to the rear and westward were burning. From there the flames leaped across Bank street and wiped out three places of business. A few moments later the fire again crossed Bank street and destroyed the Masonic Temple. After forty-five minutes it became evident that Waterbury was to experience an unparalleled conflagration. The wind was of almost hurricane force. Appeals for help were wired to New Haven and Hartford, Bridgeport and Winsted.

TWENTY BLOCKS ARE NOW IN RUINS

The arrival of help served to inspire courage among Waterburians, but still the fire continued its work of destruction. Meanwhile thieves attacked deserted houses and it became necessary to order out the militia.

At 2:30 A. M. twenty handsome blocks occupied on lower floors by stores and on upper floors by tenements and offices were in ruins. At 3 A. M. the firemen seemed to be gaining control of the fire. An hour later many citizens went to their homes, only to be thrown into renewed panic by another outbreak, this time in the Scovil House, adjacent to the City Hall. This fire, it is stated, originated in the billiard room and is surrounded with mystery. Within two hours the hotel, with nearby buildings, had been gutted. The firemen continued their work and at 6:30 had begun to again secure the upper hand. It was not until 10 o'clock, however, that it was definitely felt that the fire had been conquered. The Scovil and the Franklin houses' ruins were still blazing and in the ruined district volumes of smoke arose from the debris.

The loss by burning of the Scovil House will reach $150,000. There are rumors of incendiarism in connection with the burning of this property. For a time the fire threatened to spread from the Scovil House to the City Hall, but that beautiful and costly structure was saved.

WILL BURY THE MURDERERS

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 3.—The remains of Edward and John Biddle, the dead bandits, arrived at the Pittsburg railroad station at 11 o'clock this morning. A thousand or more people had gathered at the station. When the train drew in there was a rough scramble to get to the platform of the depot, during which several were bruised by being crushed against the stairway. The morgue wagon was waiting and the bodies were quickly driven to the morgue for identification. An immense crowd soon gathered, but a large detail of police prevented them from entering the biulding. The remains of the murderers were turned over to their brother, Harry Biddle, who will give them proper interment in the South Side Cemetery. The funeral will be conducted as privately as possible, and Rev. Father Sweeney, the priest who tendered spiritual advice to the Biddles while they were in the Pittsburg jail, will conduct the services.

Dispatches from Butler hospital this morning report Mrs. Soffel's condition as unchanged. While it is believed she will get well, the danger is not passed, and on account of the uncertainty in her condition nothing is being done in the way of preparations for her removal to Pittsburg. If she lives, in addition to answering to the charge of aiding prisoners to escape, she will be confronted by charges of furnishing the Biddles with firearms and aiding the felonious assault on the guards and officers who effected the capture in Butler.

Mrs. Soffel has written to a prominent Pittsburg attorney to engage his services. Her father is said to be quite well to do and as her parents are relenting, she hopes to receive aid from them.

The prison board is satisfied Mrs. Soffel had assistance within the prison and before the Biddle incident is finally closed it is probable there will be an almost entirely new force of attaches at the jail.

The county authorities don't believe Edward Biddle's dying statement implicating Jennie Seebers in Kahney murder and it is not likely any action will be taken by them.

STORM IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The gale from the northwest, which began early last evening, continued through the night and this morning. The maximum volley of the wind was 65 miles and over and at 10 o'clock today the local Weather Bureau instrument showed it was blowing at the rate of 56 miles an hour. All the near-by marine stations reported the sea rough, and from different points along the coast there came news of wrecks and vessels ashore.

The tugs John Berwind and E. S. Atwood, which were sent to the stranded steamer Caveur at Long Beach yesterday, were unable to return to port and both sank about eleven miles east of the Sandy Hook lightship. The crews were rescued by the German steamer Barcelona.

The tugs left the Caveur about 4 o'clock yesterday.

TELLS OF CONDITIONS IN SAMAR.

Governor Taft Continues Testimony Before Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Governor Taft today continued his statement before the Senate Committee on the Philippines regarding the conditions existing in those islands.

Answering a question by Mr. Lodge, he described the condition of the Island of Samar, where the people are still in insurrection, and said he was not prepared to state that this island was never wholly subject to Spanish rule. He then described the qualifications required for an elector in the different towns where the Commission had established governments. These were that such persons shall speak and write English or speak and write Spanish or have filled a municipal office under Spanish rule or that he shall pay $15 gold taxes a year.

Governor Taft then entered upon a general narrative of the work of the Commission. When the Commission arrived at Manila it found the people divided into three classes, those in favor of the exclusion of American sovereignty altogether—the Spanish party, in favor of this government, and a large body of ignorant people, who were entirely indifferent.

SHIP IS STILL HELD FAST.

NO CHANGE IN THE POSITION OF THE LINER CLAVERDALE.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 3.—There is no change in the position of the British ship Claverdale, which stranded on Brigantine Shoal in a dense fog yesterday morning. A high wind prevails and the wrecking tugs have not been able to render assistance to the distressed vessel. It is probable that it will be necessary to remove her cargo before she can be floated. The Claverdale was bound from China and Japan for New York with a cargo valued at $2,500,000, consisting of 4,000 tons of tea and 3,000 tons of general cargo. The crew of 25 men remain aboard. The stranded ship is visible from the board walk here, and thousands of visitors are viewing the unusual spectacle of a great steel steamship lying almost out of the water.

The Claverdale is almost a new vessel, having been built at Stockton, England, in 1898. She hails from London and is owned by T. Hazelhurst & Company. She is built of steel and is a modern cargo carrier, registering 3,500 gross tons. Her length is 330 feet, beam 43 feet, draught 24 feet.

FOUR STOCKMEN ARE KILLED IN A COLLISION

Illinois Central Trains Run Into Each Other in Straight Track.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Feb. 3.—A rear end collision at 3:40 this morning on the Illinois Central at Apple River, Ill., thirty miles east of here, resulted in the death of four stockmen, while six were seriously injured.

The dead:
M. C. LAWLER.
H. F. PANAKE, Wall Lake, Iowa.
CHRIS FERNDON.
C. R. BLUNT, Charles City, Iowa.

Seriously injured:
W. Cameron, Dundee, Ill. Badly crushed; not expected to live.
F. J. Jordan, Dunlap, Iowa. Injured about ribs and back.
D. Waller, Wall Lake, Iowa. Injured about leg and breast.

None of the trainmen were injured, as they heard the second train approaching and jumped. The stockmen were all asleep in the back car when collision occurred, their death and injuries resulting from being crushed. A special train with surgeons was sent out and the injured are being cared for at Apple River.

WORKING FOR PEACE.

THE HAGUE, Feb. 3.—The British Minister to the Netherlands, Sir Henry Howard, had a long conference today with Minister of Foreign affairs, Baron Van Linden, and the Premier, on the subject, at the latter's residence, on th subject o fthe notes exchanged between the Dutch and British Government.

In the First Chamber today Baron Van Linden, replying to a question, said nothing could yet be divulged regarding the contents of the Dutch and British communications on the subject of peace in South Africa, the British government having expressed a desire for a simultaneous publication in London and The Hague.

The governments were then discussing the time of their publication.

WILL BE CHARGED WITH CRIME OF MURDER.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 3.—Detective Dinan of San Francisco arrived here today for the purpose of taking back to San Francisco Harmon Hartrodt, alias "St. Louis Frank," who is under arrest here on a charge of being one of the murderers of Policeman Robinson at San Francisco January 21st. Hartrodt refuses to make any statement except that he received the two bullet wounds in a row at The Dalles.

A man who is supposed to have come to Portland with Hartrodt about ten days ago is said to be in Seattle, where the police are looking for him.

A FEARFUL BLIZZARD.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 3.—A fearful blizzard prevails in Central and Northern New York. The railroads are tied up and there is no prospect of the north and south lines getting open for several days. Freight trains are abandoned.

JAMES L. SPERRY PASSES AWAY AT OAKLAND HOME.

He Was a Prominent California Pioneer and Once Owned the Giant Trees at Calaveras.

James L. Sperry, a member of the prominent California family of that name, and one of the best known pioneers of the State, passed away at 9 o'clock this morning at 1308 Madison street, where he had been temporarily residing.

The illness which resulted in his death was an acute affection of the kidneys, contracted two weeks ago. The progress of the disease was so rapid that despite the best medical attention obtainable he passed away this morning. The immediate members of his family were at his bed-side when death occurred.

Mr. Sperry came to California, by the overland route, in 1851, leaving his native State of New Hampshire in the fall of 1850. He joined his brother, Willard S. Sperry, of Sperry's flour fame, and his cousin, Austin Sperry, in San Francisco, both of them having arrived in California in the historical year of 1849.

In 1855 the deceased took up his residence in Murphy's, Calaveras county, where he engaged in the hotel business until 1878.

In the meantime he purchased the Calaveras grove of big trees, which since have become world famous. He also was the proprietor of the Mammoth Grove Hotel, which has been for many years the headquarters of all tourists visiting the sequoias.

About two years ago Mr. Sperry began negotiations with R. B. Whitesides, an Eastern capitalist, representing a large Eastern lumber syndicate. A sale was finally effected, and the grove of big trees turned over to the syndicate, which since the sale, has been endeavoring to sell the big grove to the Government. Congress has authorized the purchase of the trees, and a committee has been appointed to appraise the value of the grove.

The deceased had just returned, with his family, from an extended trip throughout the Eastern States, visiting New York, the Buffalo Exposition, and Columbia, New Hampshire, the town of his nativity.

He was temporarily residing in this city with the view of purchasing a home here when death overtook him.

He was born in 1831 in New Hampshire. He leaves a widow, two sons, Willard F. Sperry of the Sperry Flour Company, and F. C. Sperry, at present associated with the Crocker family in an oil enterprise, and Miss M. F. Sperry.

The funeral will be held at Stockton tomorrow afternoon. The remains will be forwarded on tomorrow morning's train. The services and interment will be private.

SWIFT JUSTICE FOR BLACKGUARD.

ALBERT HANSEN GETS FIVE MONTHS FOR INSULTING WOMEN.

Albert Hansen, a laborer, was exceedingly astonished this morning when Police Judge Smith sentenced him to five months' imprisonment in the City Jail for having insulted two women last night on Broadway.

Miss Rose Ambrose and Miss Brady of San Francisco were being escorted by the brother of one of the ladies, A. A. Ambrose, when Hansen accosted them familiarly. The trio paid no attention to Hansen's remarks, but continued walking down the street.

In order to force the attention of the women upon himself, Hansen rudely stepped in front of the three and compelled them to stop.

Young Ambrose told Hansen to mind his own business. For a reply, Hansen applied vulgar epithets to the young ladies, and finally forgot his manhood to such an extent as to kick Miss Ambrose.

The result of Hansen's cowardly act was to land him in the City Prison.

Hansen offered as an excuse this morning in the Police Court, the fact that he was under the influence of liquor. The Judge replied that the American woman at all times was worthy of protection, and that a man who had fallen so low as to insult and kick a woman was entitled to scant consideration.

Judge Smith then sentenced the prisoner to five months, which is nearly the limit for a misdemeanor case.

SOME SEVERE WEATHER

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The gale is abating. In view of the severity of the weather the number of casualties thus far reported is comparatively small.

News has just been received that the steam trawler Anlaby, with a crew of twelve men, belonging at Hull, had been lost in a snow storm off Iceland.

The first officer of the French ship Chanaral was landed at Falmouth today. He is the sole survivor of the crew of twenty-two men of the vessel, which was capsized off Ushant.

The bark wrecked off the Silty Islands last evening and which was supposed to be a German vessel, turns out to have been the Italian bark Lofaro.

OIL MEN WILL MEET.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Feb. 3.—A meeting of the oil producers in the several fields of the county who have not entered the combine has been called for the first of the coming month for the purpose of making arrangements to establish a clearing-house. The proposed plan meets with favor.

TWO PEOPLE INJURED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—An explosion of dynamite at Thirty-fourth street and Fifth avenue has been reported to the police. Only two persons are reported injured.

A SHIP'S COOK QUICKLY DROWNS

CHARLES BRANDT FALLS OVERBOARD AND DIES BEFORE HELP COMES.

Charles Brant, a cook employed on the steamer Antelope, accidentally fell off a stringer at the Twelfth street wharf at 11 o'clock this morning and was drowned before assistance could be given him.

C. S. Burns and a man named Scott, employed on the steamer, heard his cries and dragged him from the water before he had been submerged over three minutes. All attempts at resuscitation were futile, however, and the unfortunate man expired on the way to the Receiving Hospital.

Dr. Stratton applied all known means to stimulate life, but without avail. Owing to the quickness with which death followed submersion, Dr. Stratton is of the opinion that the man must have been stricken with heart disease or paralysis when he fell.

The deceased resided at 212 Clement avenue, Alameda. The Coroner has taken charge of the remains.

HEAVY BLIZZARD AT CORRY.

CORRY, Pa., Feb. 3.—The worst blizzard for many years has reigned in this region for the past twenty-four hours. It has caused great damage to the railroads and to telegraph and telephone wires. A dispatch from Meadville, Pa., says all Erie trains are from four to ten hours late and freight traffic has been abandoned.

TALKS ON PERUVIAN RUINS.

Famous Dr. Uhle Lectured at University This Afternoon.

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—Dr. Max Uhle this afternoon delivered the first of three lectures on "The Civilizations of Peru." He will speak again at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on "The Sources of Ancient Peruvian Civilization." It is open to the general public. Dr. Uhle speaks in German.

The study of Peruvian antiquities began, said Dr. Uhle, about the middle of the last century. As there was no special method in use, little progress was made at first toward entering into the meaning and history of the many ruins with which Peru is filled. It became certain that the empire of the Incas did not extend over more than four hundred years, (that is, from about 1100 to 1532. The larger part of the Peruvian ruins must be considered as having originated in periods of civilization antedating the Incas. About these periods, however, extending perhaps over thousands of years, nothing, it at first appeared, could be known from observation of the ruins.

The application of the prehistorical method, used for antiquarian researches in Europe for many years, and consisting of systematic excavations, has changed this unsatisfactory condition. The Peruvian soil contains numerous ancient necropolises with well preserved human remains and artefacts. Remains of distinct ancient periods of civilization were discovered in separate cemeteries, or found in strata above each other interpreted chronologically as in geology. The soil from the holy town of Pachacamac, where hundreds of thousands of Indians have been interred, the environs of the imposing Sun-Temple near Trujillo in Northern Peru, and some of the southern valleys proved to be especially instructive in regard to these prehistoric civilizations.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

WARSAW, Ind., Feb. 3.—Late last night a destructive fire at Menton, this county, wiped out half the business portion of the town, causing a loss of $50,000, of which there was but little insurance. A whole block of stores and two residences were destroyed.

CHEAPER TO LIVE THAN DIE

We have all heard of the man who refused to die because it was cheaper to live on than to pay funeral expenses, but a crematory company in San Francisco prints an advertisement calculated to reach the susceptibilities of such laggards on the stage of existence.

It offers to cremate bodies for ten dollars each. It is put forth, apparently, to carry the idea cremation is the principal item of cost in disposing of a corpse."

"It doesn't lessen the cost of dying appreciably," said Edward Beaudry of McAvoy & Beaudry. "It is still cheaper to live than to die. The difference it makes is the difference between the cost of interment in a cemetery lot and cremation and storing the ashes in an urn. You don't have to water the flowers and grass on the urn nor pay somebody to keep it in order. In other respects, the funeral expenses are practically the same, except in cases where bodies are prepared for preservation in a vault. Here are the ordinary items of expense of a funeral:

Washing and dressing the body.
Embalming to prevent smell.
Funeral notices.
Casket and trimmings.
Shroud or clothes.
Hearse.
Carriages for mourners.
Flowers.

The tears shed by relatives and friends are the only things that are not charged in the bill.

"After all this expense has been incured, the body is simply delivered and ready for burial or cremation. Whether it is burned or burled cuts little figure with undertakers, but is a question of cost between the cemetery and cremation companies. Religion and sentiment cut a much larger figure in the matter, however, than considerations of expense. People will spend about the same amount of money to have a body cremated as they will spend to have it buried, for the display is after all an outward mark of respect to the dead. If nobody saw the casket and the body in its grave clothes, nor viewed the hearse and funeral cortege, funerals would be much less expensive. Cheaper coffins and clothes and simpler hearses would be the rule. There would be fewer costly floral pieces."

So, after all, the man who has been prolonging his life unnecessarily to save the cost of burial will have to stay with us a little longer. The San Francisco advertisement does not afford him much comfort. He can only cut funeral expenses by continuing to pay board.

WILL REDUCE WAR TAXES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The Ways and Means Committee of the House by unanimous vote today ordered a favorable report on the war tax reduction bill. A surprise occurred when Representative Babcock (Republican) offered this bill largely reducing duties on the steel schedule and placing some articles on the free list as an amendment to the tea repeal section. The amendment was defeated 6 to 7, Mr. Babcock and all the Democrats voting in the affirmative.

The Cuban reciprocity question also came up unexpectedly. Representative Steele of Indiana moved a 25 per cent concession on Cuban sugar. The motion was withdrawn, however, after a brief exchange of comment.

The closeness of the vote on Mr. Babcock's amendment reducing the steel schedule caused much comment. Messrs. Newlands and Cooper, Democrats, and Long and Hopkins, Republicans, were absent. It was explained in behalf of the absent members that they were either out of the city or detained at important committee meetings elsewhere and the Babcock motion was entirely unexpected.

The motion of Mr. Steele for a 25 per cent reduction on Cuban sugar was regarded as rather facetious and as a rejoinder to the unexpected motion on the steel schedule. Representative Robinson of Louisiana, who is opposed to a reduction on Cuban sugar, was among those who voted for the Babcock amendment. Following this Mr. Steele made his motion and a sharp but good natured parley occurred between Mr. Steele and Mr. Richardson. The latter suggested that if any motion on sugar was to be made Mr. Steele should broaden this proposition so as to include raw and refined sugars, placing them all on the free list. Mr. Steele did not press the motion, however, and after its withdrawal the incident was looked upon as humorous rather than as a serious move toward dealing with the Cuban question.

NEWS NOTES.

BERKELEY, Feb. 3.—John T. Campbell, an aged contractor, has been missing from his home at 2529 Carlton street for three months. During that time his wife and children have not heard anything which would lead to the discovery of his whereabouts.

About three years ago Campbell disappeared in a similar manner. That time he was gone two months, being finally located in Seattle. The missing man was at one time a policeman on the State University grounds.

On the first Saturday in March a handball tournament will be held by teams representing the Universities of California and Stanford at the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

The teams will consist of four men each—two for the doubles and one each for the singles. The competition for the selection of the local team will commence next Friday.

The Veterans' Association of the State University has elected the following officers: President, L. M. Turner; vice-president, Captain de H. Waite; secretary and treasurer, F. E. Newton.

A joint banquet will be held with the Stanford Volunteers' Society, and the following committee from the local organization has been appointed to arrange for the affair: A. F. Hughes, N. Vanderbilt and F. E. Newton.

Reception Camp, Woodmen of the World, was instituted at Sisterna Hall, West Berkeley, Saturday evening. On the same night Berkeley Lodge, I. O. O. F., assisted in the institution of Twilight Ledge at Point Richmond.

Mrs. Hannah Bently, the wealthy West Berkeley woman who was arrested upon the complaint of Health Officer Rowell for the alleged violation of a sanitary law, appeared in Justice Edgar's court this morning after having spent the night in the County Jail. She was released on $50 cash bail.

FINANCES AT ST. FRANCES DE SALES

The Finance Committee of St. Francis de Sales' Church has just made a financial report which shows that the church is in a flourishing condition.

The assumption by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barrers of Alta Vista of the $15,000 debt of the parish during the year 1900, and their subsequent payment of $5,000 thereon, permitted the use of money received from other sources for current expenses.

During the protracted tour of the Rev. Father McSweeney, the pastor, the parish will be in the charge of the Rev. Father Cull.

The following financial statement for the year 1901 has just been given to the people:

Receipts—Pew rents, $2,654.45; plate collections, $2,700; schools, $714; baptisms, $187.50; marriages, $125; orphans, $83; Pope, $40; Indians and negroes, $27.50; Easter, $560.50; Christmas, $703.25; Altar Society, $1,141.25; Church Debt Society, $331.50; seminary, $83; subscription, H. A. Butters, $4,000; excursions, $287.25. Total, $13,648.30.

Expenditures—Rector's salary, $750; assistants, $975; schools, $1,500; sexton's wages, $300; ordinary church expenses, $475.55; improvements on church, $370.75; on house, $340.10; on school, $360.15; taxes, $716; interest, $570; choir, $760; support of house, $2,145.25; orphans, $83; seminary, $83; Pope, $40; Indians and negroes, $27.50; Cathedraticum, $104; clerical relief fund, $48; amount debt paid, $4,000. Total, $13,648.30.

The statement of debt follows:

Notes held by the Rev. Chancellor of the Archdiocese, $14,000; interest at 4 per cent.

The entire indebtedness of the parish in the year 1900, amounting to $15,000, so generously assumed by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Butters of Alta Vista, Piedmont, and reduced by $1,000 then paid on account, has been further diminished by their donation of $4,000 in the year 1901.

Total amount of debt January 1, 1902, $10,000.

Signed by Committee—P. J. Ryan, D. Crowley, L. Kehoe, P. N. Hanrahan, Jas. Keller, B. McFadden, E. Hogan, L. Moriarity, J. Lamping, N. Gallagher, E. Doran, E. Fitzgerald, M. Spencer, the Rev. T. McSweeney, chairman.

WOMAN REFUSES TO OBEY THE LAW.

Because she would not comply with the sanitary laws of Berkeley, Mrs. Honora Bentley, 76 years of age, was locked up in the County Jail last night on a warrant sworn out by the Berkeley Health Officer, H. N. Rowell.

The accused woman has lived alone at 2439 Ninth street, Berkeley, for many years. She is the owner of property there estimated to be worth $20,000. It is said that her arrest is due to the fact that she refuses to connect the plumbing of her numerous buildings with the sewers.

Mrs. Bentley was arrested a year ago for the same offense. Then she was known as Mrs. Honora Townsend, and in this name the complaint was made against her. When she came up for trial she swore that her name was Bentley. For this reason her case was dismissed.

This time Health Officer Rowell swore out his warrant for the arrest of Honora Bentley, alias Townsend.

NEWS NOTES FROM CITY OF ALAMEDA.

Frank Otis is Honored by Being Appointed a Delegate.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—City Clerk Gillogly has just received a communication from David H. Mercer, chairman of the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds at Washington, requesting information as to the need of a new postoffice building in Alameda. He also wished to be informed in regard to the progress made by this city in the past year as to the increase of population, and also the value of land. The matter will be brought before the City Trustees at their next regular meeting.

OTIS HONORED.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—At a recent meeting of the Department of School Administration of the National Education Association, held in Detroit, Frank Otis, president of the Alameda Board of Education, was selected as a member of a national committee. The appointment is regarded as a great honor, as Mr. Otis was the only member selected to represent the State of California. The committee is to arrange to have the State Legislature provide for the lighting, temperature, ventilation and sanitary condition of the public schools.

The matter is to be general and will revolutionize the present condition of some schools.

DEATH OF CHILD.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—Yesterday the little 4-year-old daughter of J. F. Bima died at the father's home, 1104 Court street. The case is a very sad one, the little girl having died after a lingering illness of more than a year. Some time ago the child was taken ill with a peculiar malady which resulted in her becoming entirely paralyzed.

ADELPHIAN CLUB.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 3.—The Adelphia Club has arranged a very interesting program for the month of February. The first entertainment of this month took place Saturday afternoon, when W. W. Morrow addressed a public meeting on "The Pledge of the Blossom." Tomorrow morning "Dance Music" will be the subject of an address before the Music Section, which will be delivered by Mrs. Emma Rathgeb, while on Thursday morning the subject of "Wireless Telegraphy" will be discussed by the club, led by Mrs. Rathgeb.

STRANG'S WIFE SAYS HER HUSBAND'S CRUEL.

Alice Mary Strang has sued David Hudson Strang for a divorce, alleging cruelty. Strang was formerly a bartender at Pleasanton, and is alleged to have left that place and his wife and child four years ago.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES INCORPORATE.

Articles of incorporation of the Associated Railway Employes of California have been filed. The purposes are to furnish sick and death benefits and there is no capital stock. The directors are W. H. Spigner, F. P. Henry, W. L. Vance, G. F. Howard, H. Barum, S. A. Dedrick, E. Parker, H. E. Jackson, Charles Jones.

ROUTINE WORK OF SUPERVISORS.

REPORTS MADE AT THE SESSION OF THE BOARD THIS MORNING.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning, all the members were present.

A resolution was adopted transferring funds as follows: From the general road fund of 1900-1901; Castro Valley road fund, $15; Murray, $179; Niles, $60.

A resolution by Supervisor Horner was adopted transferring $2,200.96 from the personal property tax-fund of 1900-1901 to the general road fund for the present year.

AID GIVEN.

Supervisor Talcott reported that he had aided 118 indigents during January at a cost of $211. Filed.

S. F. Morrill, road foreman of Piedmont Road District, reported implements of the county in his possession. Filed.

Reports of expenditures for road repairs were received and filed from Roadmasters Gansberger of Mt. Eden; W. B. Bridge, Fruitvale; Peter Oxsen, Pleasanton; F. M. Meyer, Decoto; J. M. Brewer, Washington; F. Zimmerman, Altamont.

Gardener Cobb reported that he had accepted 30,729 pounds of coal for the county during January. Filed.

INSANE CASES.

Warden Page of the insane annex reported that he had cared for eleven insane case during January. Filed.

Requistions for supplies from the Superintendent of Schools and County Assessor were referred to the Building Committee.

Robert Wilson, a pensioner in the county jail, was granted a reduction of sentence of fifteen days for good conduct.

Supervisor Rowe reported that he had aided 225 people during January, at an expenditure og $428. Filed.

The name of John C. Marsh was ordered stricken from the delinquent list for non-payment of poll tax. Mr. Marsh presented his poll tax, showing that his name had been placed on the list in question through mistake.

The Hearst Oil Company of San Francisco sent a note setting forth its willingness to supply oil for road sprinkling purposes.

The County Treasurer reported $161,800 in the treasury. Filed.

C. Wise was granted permission to sell liquor on the north side of the San Leandro road and Yoakum avenue.

THREATENS SUIT.

The following communication was then read:

"Glenwood, Santa Cruz County, Cal., Feb. 2, 1902.—County Clerk, Alameda County, Cal.—Dear Sir: Several weeks have passed since I was before you and presented two poll-tax receipts for '99. It is illegal for any one person to pay twice in any one year. I want this refunded at once. This has cost about fifteen dollars besides four days' time. Please send by return mail or I will put it in the hands of an attorney. Yours truly,

"M. HOLLAND."

The communication was referred to the Tax Collector.

Applications for relief were disposed of as follows: Maria Augusta, aged 67 years, Bay avenue, referred to Supervisor Talcott; Mary White, 59 years, Niles, Supervisor Horner; Louisa Gonsalvez, 74 years, Niles, Herman Aine, 81 years, Livermore, I. Santos Minos, Livermore, aged 65 years, Mrs. D. Figueroa, Livermore, Juan Figueroa, 72 years, Livermore, Mary Bochins, aged 49, Livermore, and C. Demo, Livermore, aged 82 years, referred to Supervisor Horner.

The applications of J. Wildermuth for a liquor license at Newark and of J. Hansen at Santa Rita Junction were referred to the License Committee.

A petition signed by R. A. Wellman and fifteen others, asking for a crosswalk at the intersection of East Fourteenth street and Twenty-sixth avenue was referred to Supervisor Talcott.

Adjourned.

CONTEST OVER A POUNDMASTER.

The question of poundmaster seems to be one of engrossing interest in some of the rural districts. It has given rise to internecine strife and has sent to the Supervisors a lot of literature. The poundmaster agitation has been ardent in Newark for some time and the following is the latest on the subject which has been heard from that quarter:

"Newark, Jan. 31, 1902.—To the Honorable Board of Supervisors. Gentlemen—I herewith withdraw my petition for the position of poundmaster in favor of Mr. John Rogers as I understand that his petition bore the longer list of signatures. Mine was signed by citizens and taxpayers while his are names of non-residents and those neither taxpayers nor citizens. Had I known that quantity would carry more weight than quality, I could easily have obtained one hundred names on my petition. But I had always supposed that only taxpayers of the district were eligible in a case of this character. I remain, yours respectfully,

C. J. HEALEY."

"The taxpayers on his list," said Supervisor Horner, "were on the other list."

The communication was filed.

The following contribution to the literature of the dog jailor, with its grammatical eccentricity, is from Elmhurst, and is also addressed to the Supervisors:

"We would like to inform you about the poundmastership. It is very unjust that the poundman should take in cows from the street who are not his best friends. There are a party of people here who is one of his friends and have five cows and are all over the neighborhood. Please take the matter in hand as soon as possible and see that all their cows are kept off the streets. Also that no more cows are kept on the street. The people of the town do not think that he does his duty."

This was signed by Louis Schmidt of Michigan avenue; L. Iffert, Grand avenue; Henry Meyer, John S. Dufton, Mr. D. Elvin.

"Somebody wants a job," said Supervisor Talcott, when he heard the communication read. The missive was ordered filed.

FILED A DEMURRER.

Hannah M. Niemann and Elizabeth Mitchell today filed with Judge Hall a demurrer to the application of the trustees of the Golden Gate Congregational Church for permission to sell a lot 90x100 feet at Thirty-fourth and Adeline streets. The application and demurrer will be heard next Thursday.

MRS. PARKER BURIED.

The funeral of Mrs. Isabella Parker, widow of the late H. C. Parker, was held from her residence on Albion street this afternoon. The interment took place in Mountain View Cemetery.

DEPUTIES FOR REGISTRATION.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TAKE ACTION TO EXPEDITE THE WORK.

The Board of Supervisors this morning took steps to expedite the registration of voters for the coming election at the suggestion of County Clerk Jordan contained in the following communication:

"Under Section 1360 of the Political Code of California, it is the duty of the 'Boards of Supervisors of counties, to appropriate from the general funds of the county sufficient sums of money to pay the necessary expenses of conducting the primary elections therein specified.' Sections 1366 of said code requires the preparation of a supplemental register for use at the primary election which supplement shall show all additional registration, changes and corrections made since the last general registration completed to and including the tenth day prior to the primary. As it is impossible for the clerk with the number of deputies allowed him by law to perform the work and, as the work of registration will progress rapidly from this time and as the preparation of the supplemental register to be used at the primary election should commence at once, I would respectfully ask that your honorable body designate four copyists to be assigned to said work under my direction at a compensation to be fixed by you. Respectfully submitted.

"FRANK C. JORDAN,
"County Clerk."

Deputy County Clerk Cook made a statement to the effect that the request was based upon the opinion of the District Attorney given two years ago. At that time, Mr. Cook stated, the Board of Supervisors named twelve copyists to prepare the necessary supplement to the Great Register. This year the work was different from that of two years ago. Each affidavit had to be checked up, and it was advisable to have the checking up done as the work went along. The primaries would be held in August, and these men, he thought, would have to be employed up to the close of July.

In response to a question by Chairman Mitchell, Mr. Cook said that he had estimated the cost of registration at $2,500.

A resolution was then introduced appointing Charles A. Gale, W. F. Woods, J. W. Mott and W. B. Smith to do the copying in question at a salary of $100 per month. It was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Horner, Mitchell, Rowe, Church —4.

Nay—Talcott—1.

REGISTERING IN COUNTRY.

The following kindred resolution was then introduced:

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors will approve and allow hotel expenses and the railroad fare of the County Clerk and deputies for attending in districts in the county of Alameda outside the city of Oakland, for the purpose of registering voters, said expenses and railroad fare not to exceed $300."

Deputy County Clerk Cook said that when the last Register was being prepared the Supervisors had appropriated $300 for the expenses of the clerks in traveling through the county, although only $120 had been expended. This year, he thought, the expenses would be greater, because it was inten ded to cover the entire county.

The resolution was adopted, Supervisor Talcott alone voting in the negative.

HIGH MASS HELD IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

High mass, which was celebrated yesterday by the Rev. Father Sesnon at the Church of the Sacred Heart, was preceded by the solemn blessing of candles. In the sermon, which was also delivered by Father Sesnon, he spoke interestingly on the origin of Candlemas Day, saying:

"In the early days of the Christian era the Pope found that upon this especial Sunday a procession was made by the pagans with lighted torches to a certain temple where offerings were made to a god to whose influence they ascribed their prosperity. In order to do away with this feast, which was known as the lupercalia, the church ordered that tapers be solemnly blessed and carried in procession to the church, in honor of the purification of the Blessed Virgin, the day to be known as Candlemas Day."

High mass was sung in the Church of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception by the Rev. Father Morrison. The Rev. Father Nolan delivered a sermon on "The Word of God." The rosary procession was made by the little girls and the altar boys of the church in the evening.

In the church of St. Francis de Sales, high mass was sung at the half-past 10 o'clock service by the Rev. Father Cantwell. The Rev. Father McHugh preached the sermon.

The solemn blessing of candles was the feature of the half-past 10 o'clock mass at St. Patricks' Church, West Oakland. The mass was sung by the Rev. Father Kiely. A sermon on "Hope," by the Rev. Father John McNally Jr. followed. In the evening a devotional service, consisting of litany, rosary sermon and benediction, was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Father J. B. McNally.

DISPOSITION OF ESTATES IN THE PROBATE COURT.

Carolina Frank has been appointed guardian of the estates of Alexander, Antone, Joseph and Annie Lopes, minors.

Albert E. Yates, guardian of the estate of Edith True Yates, a minor, has petitioned for permission to sell the estate, which is a one-twenty-eighth interest in the estate of the late C. R. Yates, for $87.54. The petition recites that, after the debts are paid, the estate of C. R. Yates will not be worth more than $2,451, although it has been appraised at $17,475.

Letters testamentary on the estate of Katherina Hahn, deceased, have been issued to Rosa S. Barron and G. H. Hahn.

The inventory of the estate of the late Damos Mattos shows it to consist of $375 in cash.

R. Vannucci, assignee of P. Del Porto, has petitioned for a citation against Henry and Fritz Stenzel, executors of the estate of the late Emilie Stenzel, to show cause why they should not pay the $1,050 claim of Vannucci against the estate. The claim is an order from C. J. Stenzel, one of the heirs of the estate.

Wilfred F. Ingalls has been empowered to sell a homestead set aside for himself and his wife, Catherine M. Ingalls. The latter is hopelessly insane.

SOLD TO THE REALTY SYNDICATE.

A deed was placed on file today to property at the northeast corner of Sutter street and Telegraph avenue. The deed was executed by J. S. Myers in favor of George Sterling, representing the Realty Syndicate. The lot is 48x150 feet in size.

DEATH OF CHARLES DOUGERY.

Charles V. Dougery, aged 8 years, died at the home of his parents in Berkeley on Saturday evening last, of rheumatism. The funeral will be held tomorrow. The interment will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

T. W. HENDERSON BURIED.

The funeral of Thomas W. Henderson, who died on Saturday last at the residence of his nieces, Misses Flora and Frances Colby, 488 Twenty-fifth street, was held this morning. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain View Cemetery.

SAYS BRIBERY IS ANARCHY.

ST. LOUIS JUDGE GIVES A SCATHING CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 3.—In a most scathing charge to the February Grand Jury, just impaneled, which he ordered to continue the investigation begun by the previous body into the charges of bribery in connection with St. Louis and Suburban Railway legislation, Judge O'Neal Ryan of the Criminal Circuit Court today declared that the crime was a menace to civic and political life.

"It is anarchy," Judge Ryan said, "for it strikes a hidden and deadly blow at government."

Henry Nicholas, the director of the St. Louis and Suburban Railway Company, for whom a warrant was issued Saturday in connection with the Suburban investigation, appeared in Court today and gave a bond for $50,000 for his appearance. The bond was signed by Adolphus Busch, the wealthy brewer. Other men indicted also appeared and renewed their bonds.

Mr. Busch says he does not believe that Mr. Nicholas was in any way connected with the charge of bribing. Mr. Nicholas, he said, has lived in St. Louis forty years, during which time he has had the confidence of all those who know him.

KIDNAPER IS IN DAKOTA.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Chief of Police O'Neil today received a telegram from Chief Ballard of Casselton, N. D., saying that Florence Ely and Frank Ely Rogers, the boy whom the woman is said to have kidnaped from Evanston last July, are in that town. A second telegram stated that Miss Ely was said to have confessed her identity.

The Ely kidnaping case is one of the most peculiar with which the police have had to deal in years. Miss Ely, the aunt of Frank Ely Rogers, a 13-year-old boy, cherished an infatuation for her nephew which the boy's parents regarded as remarkable. It is thought that preparations to take Frank away to school, thus removing him from the influence of his aunt, caused the latter to take him away herself. Mrs. Rogers has been ill from grief and anxiety since her son disappeared, and the police of the whole country have been put on the watch.

FRED SCOTT IS AFTER A PARDON.

The following petition, addressed to the Governor, for the pardon of Fred H. Scott, now in the County Jail, was presented to the Board of Supervisors this morning:

"We, the undersigned residents and citizens of the county of Alameda, State of California, most respectfully petition your Excellency to pardon and restore to his liberty Fred H. Scott, aged 21 years, and now confined in the County Jail of Alameda county, California, under commitment of the Superior Court of Alameda county, and in execution of judgment sentencing him to imprisonment for two years in said County Jail, upon conviction before a Justice of assault with a deadly weapon.

"Our petition is based upon the following grounds:

"That said Scott has always borne a good reputation.

"That the offense of which said Scott was convicted was not such an offense as involved moral turpitude.

"That said Scott has suffered imprisonment since the 11th of November, 1901.

"That the offense of which said Scott was found guilty was knocking down and afterwards shooting at (as he ran away) one Harry Wilson, for the reason that the said Wilson had circulated false and scandalous stories about the sister of the said Scott, and said Wilson did, at the home of said Scott, attempt to commit rape upon Scott's sister; that the conduct of Wilson came to the notice of Scott and Scott thereupon hunted Wilson up with the result above noted.

"That we and each of us are now of the opinion that said Scott has already been punished enough for any offense that he may therein have committed."

The document has already been signed by the following county officers: Frank C. Jordan, County Clerk; J. J. Hanlin Jr., Deputy County Auditor; M. A. Whidden, Deputy County Auditor; James B. Dean, Deputy County Auditor; C. F. Horner, Supervisor; W. H. Church, Supervisor; H. D. Rowe, Supervisor; John Mitchell, Supervisor.

Of the jurors who voted for the conviction of Scott, J. M. Porter of Alameda signed the petition.

POLICE ARREST BOLD BURGLARS.

Two daring burglaries were committed last night and two suspects, John Carter and Henry Jones, are now behind the bars in the City Prison.

The Vienna Garden, on Seventh street, between Clay and Jefferson streets, was entered through a window and the place ransacked. A slot machine was broken open and $7 worth of nickels taken. Four billiard balls were also taken.

After securing a bottle of whiskey, the burglars visited Elliot's grocery store on Brush and Seventh streets. There an entrance through a window was also effected. Some silver fruit knives and other minor utensils were taken.

The burglars were surprised by Special Officer C. T. Ford, with their booty on them. He commanded them to surrender. They reluctantly stopped at his command. One of the thieves submitted to arrest, but the other made a successful break for liberty.

Ford landed his prisoner in jail without further mishap and notified Captain Peterson of the escape of the other. Patrolmen Flynn and Stahl subsequently recaptured the escaped burglar while attempting to go to San Francisco.

Carter says he comes from San Francisco and Jones claims West Berkeley as his residence. The police believe the men gave assumed names and are looking up their records. Both are young men, neither of them being over 20 years of age.

BILL TO INCREASE THE SALARIES OF JUSTICES

Tillman Has Some Fun With Foraker About Porto Rica.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Soon after the Senate convened today, Mr. Hale of Maine reported the Urgent Deficiency bill and gave notice that he would call it up for consideration tomorrow.

Consideration of the bill to increase the salaries of Judges of United States Courts was then resumed. The pending amendment was that offered by Mr. Stewart increasing the salaries of Senators and members of the House of Representatives to $7,500 annually, beginning on March 4, 1903. After brief discussion the amendment was rejected, 15 to 44.

An amendment was then offered by Mr. Foraker extending the proposed increase of the salaries of Circuit Judges to the Circuit Judge of Porto Rico.

Mr. Clark of Wyoming moved to amend the amendment by extending the proposed increase in salary to the District Judge of Hawaii.

Mr. Tillman inquired of Mr. Foraker whether Porto Rico was in the United States or not.

"I will say to the Senator," replied Mr. Foraker, "that Porto Rico belongs to the United States.

"The matter of 'belonging to' and 'being in' is entirely different," suggested Mr. Tillman.

Mr. Foraker thought this was not a proper time to discuss the status of Porto Rico.

"Oh, there is plenty of time," said Mr. Tillman, "we have the whole session before us. We might as well discuss the question now as at any other time."

Mr. Foraker said he would content himself now with saying simply that Porto Rico belongs to the United States. "The relation of the Island to the United States," said he, "has been established by Congress and approved by the United States Supreme Court."

Mr. Teller urged that if the salaries of Judges in Porto Rico and Hawaii were to be increased, those of the Judges in the Territories also should be increased.

Considerable opposition was devoted to the amendment, and Mr. Foraker withdrew it rather than jeopardize the bill.

Mr. Clark of Wyoming insisted upon his amendment and re-offered it at once.

GIRARD'S DAUGHTER BRINGS A CONTEST.

Says That Her Stepmother Tried to Deprive Her of a Share in Estate.

Mrs. Lessie West, daughter of the late ex-Councilman and piano dealer, F. R. Girard, has begun a sensational suit against her stepmother, Mrs. Dora Girard, whom she accuses of unduly influencing the father against the laughter. She says that Mrs. Girard deprived her of her father's love and affection and so prejudiced him against her that she was ignored in the disposition of his $100,000 estate. This was done when Girard was in fear of death, and he conveyed all of his property to his wife.

The conveyances of his property, it is alleged, were executed on September 19, 1901, while Girard was very ill. The daughter alleges that for years the wife contrived to gain possession of her husband's property by engendering a feeling of hatred toward his offspring. This was done, it is alleged, by making false and defamatory statements against her and by forbidding her to visit her father.

The complaint alleges that the deeds to the wife were revoked as soon as Girard recovered his health, but that immediately after his death Mrs. Girard caused them to be placed on record. The complaint further alleges that the wife has taken possession of all the property, is conducting her late husband's piano business, has appropriated the money he left in bank, amounting to about $20,000; has had his stock in the Central Bank transferred to her own name, and is appropriating to herself all of the revenue from the property. It is alleged that she is expending the sum of $500 a month for her living expenses, and that she is thus needlessly wasting the estate.

The daughter asks that the conveyances to her stepmother be set aside, that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the property and that Mrs. Girard be compelled to account for all of the property she has received.

Besides the plaintiff there are two other children—Frank, aged 19, and Ida, aged 16 years. Girard was divorced from his first wife many years ago. The property described in the complaint as belonging to the estate is as follows: Business and stock of the Girard Piano Company, value unknown; stock of the Central Bank, value unknown; contracts; family residence at Thirty-second and Grove streets, valued at $7,000; property in East Oakland; two pieces of property in the Rowland tract; property in Monterey county, and $20,000 in bank.

ELEANOR MORE'S WILL IS DENIED PROBATE.

Judge Melvin this morning denied the application of ex-Judge Slack of San Francisco for the probate of the will of the late Eleanor H. More. The will was contested by a sister of the decedent, Mrs. E. M. Miller, but the contest was dismissed several weeks ago by the granting of a non-suit by Judge Melvin. There is another contest pending, however, and Judge Melvin held that the will should not be probated until the second contest, which was filed by T. R. More, has been settled.

Attorney Slack took an exception to the court's ruling, stating that he would carry the matter to the Supreme Court forthwith. Judge Melvin then continued the matter for four weeks.

CHINESE KNIFE WIELDER PUT ON HIS TRIAL.

The trial of Yong Gee Jim, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was begun before Judge Melvin and a jury this morning. The Chinese is accused of attacking A. Fischler with a knife and inflicting a slight wound on the arm. The trouble occurred on October 25th last, when both men were employed at Ringolsky's junk shop.

AN OLD SOLDIER BREAKS HIS LEG.

Francis J. Eschus, an old soldier and carpenter, missed his footing and fell down at flight of stairs at the Model Lodging House at Ninth and Franklin streets this morning. His left leg was broken by the fall and he was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he was treated by Dr. R. T. Stratton.

DEMURRER FILED IN THE TAX CONTEST SUITS.

City Attorney Johnson today filed his demurrer in the Ninth Circuit Court in the case of Everett Clark and others against the city of Oakland, to test the validity of the increased assessment on certain Washington street property.

THE CROWLEY WILL CONTEST.

Katherina Barlow, executrix of the will of the late Winifred Crowley, has answered the contest of the will instituted by Daniel Crowley. She declares that Mrs. Crowley was of sound and disposing mind when the instrument was executed and that she was not unduly influenced by fraudulent means nor by false representations. Mrs. Crowley could not write her own name, Mrs. Barlow declares, but it was written by William Basil White in her presence and Mrs. Crowley made her mark. The estate in dispute is worth about $1,500.

CREMATION.

The Odd Fellows' Cemetery Association, San Francisco Cal.

(No.. Preserve this to read in connection with Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5.)

To facilitate the incineration of those who believe in it, THE ODD FELLOWS' CEMETERY ASSOCIATION has built the largest and best equipped Crematory in the United States, and a Columbarium for the preservation of their ashes that has no equal in the world. The general office is at the Cemetery, on Point Lobos avenue, San Francisco. The interior office (in charge of Mr. W. E. Chesley) is at 1004 Broadway, Oakland. The Association is practically for the mutual benefit of the living, in reducing the cost of disposing of, and preserving the remains of their dead. It offers its services to every one who believes in Cremation; a niche in the Columbarium represents an interest in the business of Cremation and a surety that the owner's ashes will rest in that spot forever. Having no stockholders to eat the profits, be assessed to make up losses, or be sued for the Association's debts, the Board of Trustees are conducting the business of the Association on the broad lines of reciprocity—the more business we do, the less it will cost our patrons;—and we hope, in time, by increase of patronage, to reduce the price of Cremation far below the present cost. Incineration ought to be a Governmental function; until it becomes so, our Association will attempt to do that duty with the least possible expense to its patrons. For further information enquire at the San Francisco or Oakland office.

GOLF.

The gentlemen from the local golf club must have had a bad attack of stage fright when they began play with the San Francisco golfers in the annual home-and-home match on the Presidio links Saturday. No other possible reason can be assigned for their weak showing. That the leaders of the San Francisco Golf Club are not much superior at golf play over the leaders of the Oakland Golf Club was demonstrated in a foursome match, played after the home-and-home match in which Messrs. Folger and Johnson defeated Messrs. Lawson and Adamson by a score of 1 up, yet in the home-and-home match the two San Francisco gentlemen totaled a score of 5 up against their Oakland rivals.

It was a one-sided game from the beginning. Before Oakland got a score San Francisco had a lead of 15 up. Then J. A. Folger defeated H. C. Golcher by 5 up, but this was more than overcome by W. Gregory, who won from G. D. Greenwood by 8 up. The only other score made by Oakland was secured by C. P. Hubbard, who won from L. Kellogg by 2 up. Mr. G. B. Cooksey closed the play by winning from D. F. Belden by 6 up, and Oakland left the links defeated by a total of 18 up.

There was nothing in the play Saturday to indicate that the Oakland team had a possible chance to overcome their lead and it looks as if this year's honors will go to the San Francisco team. Oakland did not have its strongest players on the links, but even the very best players in the club and all the best of luck could hardly overcome the lead secured by San Francisco Saturday. Following is the score:

SAN FRANCISCO.

J. Lawson	4 up
B. D. Adamson	1 up
J. W. Byrne	3 up
S. L. Abbot Jr	3 up
H. C. Golcher	0
W. Gregory	8 up
L. Kellogg	0
G. B. Cooksey	6 up
Total	215 up

OAKLAND.

E. R. Folger	0
W. F. Johnson	0
F. S. Stratton	0
R. M. Fitzgerald	0
J. A. Folger	5 up
G. D. Greenwood	0
C. P. Hubbard	2 up
D. F. Belden	0
Total	7 up

San Francisco wins first match by 18 up.

COURSING

There was a large crowd present at Melrose Coursing Park yesterday and some excellent coursing was enjoyed. The day was ideal for the sport and the hares very strong. Several tried the dogs out and escaped. The short enders were made happy with as many as ten courses going their way. Harriet won twice on the short end, once at 1 to 3½ and again at 1 to 5. Crawford Lass on the short end won the final. Following are the results: Tom Hurlick won from Coquet, 4 to 1; Martha Washington won from Zamar, 3 to 1; Slim won from Talk To Me, 1 to 2½; Eager won from Waughtaugh, 3 to 1; Hawker won from Charlie Ox, 3 to 1; Honor Bright won from Golden Russett, 1½ to 1; Short Over won from Young Fearless, 2½ to 1; Wild Nora won from Lily Wright, 2 to 1; Twilight Jr. won from A La Rue, 1 to 1½; Rosinante won from Friendly, 3½ to 1; Pleasant Girl won from Veto, 1 to 2; Harriet won from Blackford, 1 to 3½; Go Slow won from Grand Duchess, 2½ to 1; Prompto won from Swedish, 2½ to 1; Gamecock won from Young Frisco, 2½ to 2; Cascade won from Sir Lawrence, 1 to 1½; Red Rock won from Little Lucy, 2 to 1; Golden Age won from Dudley Diamond, 6 to 1; Crawford Lass won from Rickety Jig, 5 to 1; First Foot won from Melpomene, 5 to 1; Roxana won from Los Angeles, 1 to 1; Shadow won from Green Girl, 2 to 1; Miss Brummel won from B. P., 3 to 1; Cecil M. won from Lady Davenport, 2½ to 2.

SECOND TIE.

Tom Hurlick won from Martha Washington, 3 to 1; Slim won from Eager, 1½ to 1; Honor Bright won from Hawker, 2½ to 1; Wild Nora won from Golden Russett, 2 to 1; Rosinante won from Twilight Jr., 1½ to 1; Harriet won from Pleasant Girl, 1 to 5; Prompto won from Go Slow, 2 to 1; Cascade won from Gamecock, 2½ to 1; Red Rock won from Golden Age, 2 to 1; Crawford Lass won from First Foot, 3 to 1; Shadow won from Roxana, 4 to 1; Miss Brummel won from Cecil M., 1 to 2.

THIRD TIE.

Tom Hurlick won from Slim, 1 to 2; Honor Bright won from Wild Nora, 1 to 2½; Rosinante won from Harriett, 1½ to 1; Prompto won from Cascade, 2 to 1; Crawford Lass won from Red Rock, 1 to 2½; Miss Brummel won from Shadow, 2½ to 1.

FOURTH TIE.

Tom Hurlick won from Honor Bright, 1 to 2; Rosinante won from Prompto, 2 to 1; Crawford Lass won from Miss Brummel, 3½ to 1.

FIFTH TIE.

Tom Hurlick won from Rosinante, 2½ to 1; Crawford Lass won from Golden Russett, a bye.

FINAL.

Crawford Lass won from Tom Hurlick, 2 to 2½.

BOXING.

Jack Root, the new middle weight champion of the world, tendered his manager, seconds and trainers a complimentary dinner yesterday afternoon at his training quarters at Alameda. There were present, "Western Al" Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Croll, George Croll, Ed Holly and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Houseman. During the courses some reference was made to the contest that ended so unsatisfactory to all. Fouls are possible in all arguments in the ring and the sympathy of the crowd always goes out to the man fouled, but there is surely a tendency to overlook the transgression of the rules and allow the fight to go to a finish. Nobody wants to see a fighter lose on a foul, yet, as Joe Choinsky has often said, when a man is rouled he is disabled and whether the foul is intentional or not, he is practically put out of the fight and is entitled to protection by the referee. Speaking of the unfortunate foul of Friday night, Mr. Houseman, while the guest at dinner yesterday, said: "I would rather have seen the fight end cleanly since a decision on a foul always detracts from the glory that goes with decisive wins. If Gardner wants another match, I will bet him $2,500 Root wins."

Before going to Alameda, Mr. Houseman and his wife were guests in Oakland. After a drive through the principal residence streets a call was made on Mr. John Condon, the Chicago turfman who is occupying the Haven residence on Eighth street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Houseman were delighted with Oakland and will have many tales to tell their Chicago friends about the beauties of this city.

"Young Griffo," the once noted Australian fighter, was found in a vacant lot in Chicago yesterday with both hands and feet frozen. It is likely that his hands will have to be amputated.

The press dispatches from New York say that Bob Fitzsimmons has at last consented to meet Jim Jeffries for one more championship battle and that a meeting between the two great fighters will take place Tuesday to draw up articles of agreement and close all necessary arrangements.

Al Neill, the popular welter-weight champion, left for Los Angeles on the Owl last evening and will meet Mike Donovan in what will be their third battle Tuesday evening at Hazard's pavilion. Twice has Neill defeated the Eastern man and he feels confident of annexing the long end of the purse again. Immediately after the fight he will leave for San Francisco, where he will finish his training for his match with Dutch Thurston, to take place before the Reliance Athletic Club Friday evening, the 14th.

THE TURF.

The colors of the popular New Yorker, Mr. L. V. Bell, were prominent at Emeryville Saturday, Paul Clifford and Sweet Tooth running first and second in the Adam Andrew selling stake. Herculean also won for the stable, and Brown Dick ran second to Afghan at long odds. Everybody at the track was pleased to see Mr. Bell's colors first past the post. He is a quiet, genteel gentleman whose presence is respected by turf lovers East and West. His horses are now handled by Charlie Saunders, who is one of the most competent trainers in this country. Now that luck has changed for Mr. Bell, it will not be surprising to find his colors in front many times before the racing season ends, but not too often to please his many admirers here.

Eighty head of horses of fine strains, embracing about twenty-five trotters, will be auctioned Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock by W. H. Hord, at Killip & Co.'s old Tattersall's, at 1732 Market, corner of Van Ness, San Francisco. The consignment is from the Sonoma Stock Farm, estate of the late J. B. Chase, the renowned breeder. In the lot are brood mares, stallions and a heavy showing of colts and fillies. This is a rare chance for TRIBUNE readers to acquire speed horses of rich ancestry at public vendue prices. The disposal will begin at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and is by order of Court.

COL. IRISH WILL NOT LOSE HIS POSITION.

A dispatch from Washington says:

"The presence of Colonel John P. Irish in Washington gives rise to gossip as to his tenure as Naval Officer of the port of San Francisco. One or two Californians here were inclined to think that other candidates might give Colonel Irish a hard race, but Senators Perkins and Bard do not share that opinion. Senator Perkins said today he had no doubt that Colonel Irish would remain where he was without molestation."

COMPANY A RESERVES HAS INVITATIONS.

Company A, Veteran Reserves, N. G. C., has received two invitations to attend services in honor of Abraham Lincoln's birthday on Sunday evening, February 9. One of these is from Rev. Benj. F. Sergeant, pastor of the North Berkeley Presbyterian Church. The other is from Rev. Mr. Hotle of the Eighth Avenue M. E. Church, East Oakland. It will be decided at next drill of the company which invitation will be accepted.

REV. BAKER WOULD ABOLISH OATHS

SAYS THAT SWEARING IS A NASTY HABIT—NOT POLITE OR NECESSARY.

Rev. E. E. Baker pastor of the First Presbyterian Church yesterday delivered a sermon on the subject: "Swearing.'" Dr. Baker said in part:

"More frequent than the common habit of lying and gambling is the habit of profanity. I speak of it as a habit although it has puzzled the philosophers to trace the love of swearing to its element in the human constitution. Back of every habit there must be some inspiring provocating cause. What is there in the make up of man that gives him such ready accomplishment in this direction? Parents need not be told that the boy of tender years picks up language that borders on profanity, if not actually so. In that it is not a man's vice entirely; it is the vice of men pre-eminently. It is a passion! I do not hold that the vice is inevitable nor excusable, however strong the provocation. I do hold that it is well that we are constituted with the power of hate, only we must hate the right thing; we must direct our angor against injustice and inequality and not against men. Our anger ought not to be directed against the victim but against the thing that made him the victim. I have great respect for the man who is making the fight for self-control right along this practical line of keeping those bitter words inside that swell up in the time of provocation.

"Is swearing an instinct? One would almost think so as he walks among the street gamins of the city. He might almost think it was an art, hearing them in their proficient use of the oaths of men of longer and larger lives. The trouble concerning swearing, apart from many other things, is that it is so infectious. It is a vice in morals that is so catching that just to hear it gives us without our will a vocabulary for future use that we do not intend to use at the time.

"We should be circumspect in speech because when near the younger generation they have the poison of our language dropped into their minds. One of the sad things as we go in and out of our streets, ferries and trains is that we are compelled almost to listen to the language that pollutes and poisons whether we will or no. Swearing is a habit—habits are not optional. We are bundles of habit; it is only a question of what kind of habit, good or evil. Some one has said that swearing is an accomplishment, but it certainly is an accomplishment that no one need take any pride in, for it requires neighter rank, learning, nor fortune. The meanest person on earth can excel the greatest person on earth in this accomplishment of profanity, which is its own disgrace.

"Swearing is so easy in its formation and so difficult in its reformation. To praise God and to curse man out of the same mouth, with the same tongue and breath, is visited by a penalty, the sin of which consists of the lack of reverence for humanity. To invoke God's wrath on a fellow being is to despise man. Surely we need to be taught that if God is high and holy as he is, that reverence for Him should lead us not to take His name in vain.

"The way to overcome the habit is to cultivate the sense of God's holiness. Aside from the religious phase, I would deprecate the use of profanity in ordinary or extraordinary conversation on the ground of its violation of propriety. It is a corruption of language, a perversion of speech; a sin against speech as well as a sin against one's reverence of God. It is not necessary to make oaths in order to make our statements strong. The simple truth is that to swear when it is unnecessary weakens our statement. The teachings of ethics is that swearing never is necessary. I will go so far as to advocate the abolition of oaths in our courts of justice. They are mockeries most of the time. The affirmation of a man on his honor is quite enough. Making swearing so common in court puts a premium on perjury.

"I conclude with a mere statement that swearing is not polite, nor gentlemanly, and certainly not ladylike. I do not mean to say that a man is not a gentleman when he swears, but it is not gentlemanly to swear. We should keep our speech clean, keep our thoughts under control, curb our spirit, make our strength to be strength rather than weakness."

GREAT NORDICA IN THREE SONG RECITALS

Nordica, the world-renowned singer, is to be the star feature at Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco, on three occasions this week. The program at the various events will comprise selections from English, German, French and Italian composers. These charming song recitals will take place on Tuesday and Thursday nights, and on Saturday afternoons. The prices for reserved seats are $1, $2 and $3, and tickets may be obtained at the San Francisco store of Sherman, Clay & Company. Mr. Alfred Bouvier, in conjunction with Mr. Will L. Greenbaum, is managing the Nordica entertainments.

BARBER'S RECEPTION.

A special meeting of the Barbers' Union will be held this evening at the California Hall, to hear an address by W. E. Klaptsky, grand secretary and treasurer of the national organization. Refreshments will be served.

PLAYS AT THE LOCAL THEATERS

MODJESKA AND JAMES WILL BE AT THE MACDONOUGH THEATER.

Were it merely announced that Shakespeare's historical play, "Henry VIII," was to be presented here tonight, seats could hardly be given away, much less sold, even though the cast was guaranteed of average merit. But add the spark of genius suggested by such names as Madame Modjeska and Louis James, and the public are clamorous. The public are not fools, they 'know a hawk from a handsaw' and will not have the classics interpreted for them except by the elect. Such opportunities are rare, so rare that the engagement of these famous artists will be sure to take precedence over any other theatrical event since the days of Booth and Barrett.

"Henry VIII" has had very infrequent performances of late years, for which reason the work of both artists will be followed with the keener pleasure, as neither Mr. James nor Madame Modjeska have made any material changes in their ropertoire for some time past. The play principally concerns the crafty, sinuous Cardinal Wolsey and the imperious but essentially womanly Queen Katherine, whom he seeks to divorce from Henry VIII at the behest of his royal master. The play might be called a chronicle history with three catastrophes, varied by a marriage, a divorce and a coronation, and ending with the baptism of a child. The majestic pride of Katherine and her tremendous struggle against the fate she knows to be inevitable, the rise and fall of Wolsey, her implacable foe, the execution of Buckingham and the final triumph of the King's insatiate selfishness provide some of the most remarkable scenes in Shakespeare's works. These scenes occasion many of those sublime speeches which have become so familiar that many who hear them quoted do not even know the play to which they belong—Cardinal Wolsey's "Farewell to Ambition" being a brilliant case in point.

Wagenhals and Kemper, the managers who are responsible for the production, have given the play a setting well worthy the fame of their stars. It is claimed that for elaborate design and perfection of detail it has seldom been surpassed. The dramatic action will be heightened by original incidental music written by the well known composer, Carl Busch, the vocal portion being rendered by a well selected chorus, which will also sing the familiar song, "Angels Ever Bright and Fair." The company will number more than fifty people all told, among whom are Norman Hackett, the popular young leading man, Thomas Coffin Cooke, Wadsworth Harris, Alice Clarke, Mrs. Wells, Affie James, Jerome Harrington and others equally prominent. The organization requires for the company and its effects several cars for its transportation.

The engagement will conclude Tuesday night with an elaborate production of "The Merchant of Venice."

DEWEY THEATER.

Tonight at the Dewey Theater there will be a grand revival of the sterling melodrama, "Monte Cristo." Of all the popular plays which have been presented to the public in the last twenty years, not excepting even that of "Rip Van Winkle," there is none which has a stronger hold upon the people than this dramatization of Dumas' great work, "Monte Cristo." Landers Stevens will appear in the title role. Miss Fanny Gillette will assume the role of Mercedes, a character in which she has appeared with great success in many of the leading cities of the country. The other characters will be sustained by the members of the stock company, with the assistance of a number of talented people specially employed for this occasion.

"Monte Cristo," while affording a first class opportunity to the actors to display their talents, enables the scenic artist, also, to exhibit his skill. As a consequence, the mounting of the play will be of the most elaborate character. The piece will run through the week.

PECK'S THEATER.

At Peck's Theater tonight the excellent program which was presented Saturday night will be repeated this evening. It is one of the most varied which has yet been presented. There is not a weak act on it. Every feature is re-demanded, and the recalls are hearty and enthusiastic to the highest degree. The same bill will be repeated through the week.

DIETZ VAUDEVILLE.

At Dietz Vaudeville House there will be an excellent program presented tonight, in which a number of successful comedians and character artists will appear. Some of these artists have never been seen or heard here before. There will, therefore, be a great desire to both see and hear them. The price of admission is 25, 20 and 10 cents.

I have a POSITIVE CURE, and will guarantee it in every Rupture that can be reduced and held in the body during the course of treatment.

I will make you a square business proposition—viz.: If you will call at my Office I will examine you free of charge and state the exact amount that it will cost you to be cured. You then sign an "Article of Agreement," wherein you promise to appear for treatment once each week, and then deposit the fee in some bank and obtain a "Certificate of Deposit" made payable to yourself, and when you can stand any and all necessary tests to satisfy yourself that your cure is complete, THEN, and not until THEN, will the endorsed certificate be accepted in payment for the treatment. Were you to place $1,000 cash on my desk before being cured it would not be accepted. You cannot pay until CURED. I have conducted my practice upon this plan for the past eleven years, and hundreds have accepted the above offer, and to this date there has not been a single instance where the money so deposited was not turned over to me within 90 days from the time of beginning treatment.

I am the Originator of this Cure, and have instructed several hundred physicians, who are now conducting Offices in all parts of the United States, and all treat their patients upon the same plan. There is not another Doctor, or combination of doctors, or medical institute that will make you the above proposition.

I will be pleased to meet anyone afflicted with Rupture at my Offices from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M., and Sundays from 10 until 2.

Smelters of Copper, Gold, Silver and Lead Ores

PACIFIC UNION MINING AND SMELTING COMPANY

SAN FRANCISCO OFFICE
Room 40 310 Market St.

Lordsburg, N. M., Dec. 21st, 1901.

Vulcan Smelting & Refining Co.,
306 Pine St.,
San Francisco, Cal.

Gentlemen:—

We have just completed a very successful run in the 50-ton furnace sold to us by your company on a mixed carbonate and sulphide ore, and turned out a 96 per cent copper bullion, carrying the gold and silver values, with a loss of less than three-quarters of 1 per cent of copper in the slag, which, as you are aware, is remarkably low in the smelting of carbonate ores. The furnace is all right,---it's a wizard. We would have been very glad to tender you this testimonial before, but desired to make the run entirely with our own force, separate from the operation of same by your force sent here to blow furnace in.

We find that our 30 H. P. boiler is ample to operate furnace in a most satisfactory manner. We also find that your statements regarding the smelter have not been exaggerated at all, and that the operation of the furnace is entirely as represented, and is a complete success, and will within the near future place with the Vulcan Company an order for a 100-ton plant, which we will install at Lordsburg also.

Yours truly,

PACIFIC UNION MINING & SMELTING CO.,

FOOLS AND CRIMINALS.

The newspapers seem to be working around to the theory that the Biddle brothers, the desperate criminals who recently escaped from the Pittsburg jail with the assistance of the Warden's wife, were in reality innocent lambs and that it is the officers who wounded and captured them should be hanged. The Biddles were under sentence of death for murder, and they nearly killed two prison guards in effecting their escape. To prevent recapture they made a desperate fight, but were mortally wounded and taken prisoners.

It is possible that some of the officers may have allowed their anger to carry them too far, but that should not turn the Biddles into objects of compassion. Unless the law is at fault they were thoroughly bad men. They had shown their willingness to kill anybody who stood in the way of their liberty, and it was the sworn duty of the officers to capture them if possible. A blow more or less in such a fray is of no great consequence, for it comes of hot blood under great provocation.

But the infatuation of the maudlin creature who assisted in the escape and the sanguinary end of the dash for liberty seem to have thrown over the criminals a glamor and to have raised anew a question of their guilt. It is no new thing for criminals to die asserting their innocence with the last breath, even in the face of irrefragible testimony. They have denied their guilt on the scaffold when the proof was as open and unimpeachable as the day. Denial of guilt characterizes hardened criminals everytime. It is a cardinal principle with them never to acknowledge anything of an incriminating character. The more credulous and sympathetic their hearers are the more readily and sturdily will they lie.

The effort to hold up the Biddles as innocent men unjustly hounded to death is an impeachment of the law and a reflection on the court that tried and condemned them. Sentimental ministers and slobbering women of the Soffel type are the natural affinities and defenders of criminals. Some years ago there was an attempted break at Folsom prison, and nearly all the chapel choir was killed in attempting to escape. While these men were practicing hymns and befooling the chaplain they were plotting to have arms planted in the prison grounds with which to slay the officers and guards. The incident carries its lesson.

DANGER OF ELECTRIC WIRES.

Numerous instances of people being killed by coming in contact with live electric wires admonish the greatest care in handling and securing them. Telephone, telegraph and street car companies should be required to maintain their wire lines so as not to imperil the lives of the general public.

Last Saturday night a young man in Sacramento ran against a sagging wire and was instantly killed his body being shockingly burned and mutilated. He was on the public street, and through carelessness the wire allowed to drop down till it would inflict death on the passer-by, who had no warning of its presence.

The company to whom the wire belonged is morally guilty of murder. It is allowed the use of the public highways for stringing its wires, yet it is so careless or indifferent of the safety of citizens that it allowed this murderous thread of concentrated lightning to drop down and obstruct the highway.

Such careless disregard of the sacredness of human life is criminal, and it should be punished and sternly repressed. It generally comes from an effort to make profits larger by reducing the repairing force below the efficiency point. What is an occasional killing weighed against the wages of an extra man? This sort of accursed economy is one of the things that make corporations so unpopular in most American cities. The desire to save money overtops all consideration for the public, all respect for human life.

Oakland has many wires strung along the streets, and the greatest watchfulness is necessary to prevent them from becoming death-dealing instruments. The authorities should enjoin the greatest care on their owners, and accidents caused by negligence should be severely punished.

The story that comes from London about the proposition to buy the Danish West Indies being a business job worked up between "Senator" H. K. Rogers and the late Danish Prime Minister lacks certain elements of versimilitude. There is no such name as H. K. Rogers in the list of United States Senators. Who is he? Doubtless the Danish ministry had private agents in Washington whose business it was to ascertain the prevailing sentiment in official circles toward the acquisition of the islands, but that does not imply corruption or even irregularity. If no member of the United States Senate was acting as an agent for the Danish government the story is destitute of much real pith. It appears to have been started by politicians in Denmark opposed to sale of the islands to the United States.

FOREIGN IMPUDENCE.

The spectacle of the hired attorneys for foreign corporations openly lobbying at Washington against the passage o fa Chinese seclusion act is not a pleasant one for American citizens. The impudence of the thing is amazing. Why Congressmen give these people any consideration whatever is beyond comprehension.

Formerly the people of the Pacific Coast were opposed principally by the sentimentalists of the East in their efforts to restrict Chinese immigration, but the shift is now made to a cold-blooded question of profit to transportation and manufacturing companies. Attorneys for the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, one a Canadian and the other a Japanese concern, are loudly protesting against Congress passing another exclusion act What these people are looking to is profit. They care nothing for the good or the prosperity of the American people. Indeed the Canadian Pacific is endeavoring to divert all the traffic it can from the United States.

These foreigners are reinforced at Washington by the Southern cotton mill owners, who are impressed with the silly idea that the Chinese will not continue to buy the goods they manufacture unless our ports are reopened to Chinese immigration. The cotton mill men hold fast to this foolish notion in face of the fact that they have practically built up their trade with China since the Geary Act was passed.

But if their assumption were correct, it would afford no valid reason for again inflicting the evils of Chinese immigration on the Pacific Coast. The loss would so outweigh the gain that there could be no comparison. The only reason this phase of the question is ignored is because the cotton mills are in one section of the country, while the Chinese immigration threatens another section. It is just a question of profit, no matter at what loss and misery to others. These millmen deserve scant consideration. The foreigners should be given none at all.

This evening Miss Alice Graves will be the guest of honor at a euchre party given at the Crellin home on Alice street. She is a Los Angeles girl and is being extensively entertained while here. The affair is to be small and informal, but will doubtless be very pleasant. The party will be made up entirely of members of the younger set.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the dinner party given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Smith of 913 Fifth avenue, East Oakland, in honor of their young guest, Miss Nellie Adolph of Wheeling, W. Va., who has recently arrived here to spend several months with them.

Miss Adolph is an accomplished belle of Wheeling, where her father, Edmund I. Adolph, is a prominent capitalist. She is to be the honored guest at several informal affairs in the near future, among them being the dinner party planned by Mrs. Hugh Smith, at which she will entertain only members of the younger set. At the dinner given Saturday evening the table was prettily decorated with pink carnations, white roses and lilies. Covers were laid for Miss Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Quint of Belvedere, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney C. Jones of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyrrell of Berkeley, Mrs. Hall of Berkeley, William Tyrrell of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Smith and the host and hostess.

Society is very much interested in the new musical club recently organized by Miss Louise Stubbs, a well known and popular girl of the younger set. The club is composed of Mrs. Carrie Brown Dexter, soprano; Miss Stubbs, mezzo-soprano; Mrs. Alexander Young Jr., contralto, and Mrs. Collins, alto. Their first public appearance will be made at the coming society vaudeville for the benefit of the children's room in the new Free Library, and they are busily rehearsing a number of pretty songs, the names of which are not to be made public until the night of the entertainment. Later, they will sing at a number of the Ebell luncheons and other affairs for the benefit of charitable institutions.

Mrs. Herbert Lang was the hostess at a delightful card party given Saturday at her pretty new colonial home at 542 Thirty-fourth street. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. George Nusbaumer, who has just returned from a six-months' tour of the Eastern States. The house was prettily decorated with palms and carnations, and dainty refreshments were served after a number of games of "hearts" had been played. Mrs. Emil Peterson carrying off the prize.

Among the guests present, all of whom were intimate friends of the guest of honor, were: Mrs. Charles Egbert, Mrs. Emil Nusbaumer, Mrs. Whetmore, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Morton Dwer, Mrs. Wellington Morse, Mrs. Emil Peterson, Miss Bessie Day, Miss Wheeler, Miss Edith Hass, Miss May Kirby, Mrs. Lackie and Miss Lackie.

George E. Sterling, who has carried letters on Broadway for thirteen years, left Saturday for Reno, where he will wed Mrs. Irene Swardts of St. Joseph, Missouri.

There will be a honeymoon trip and afterward Mr. and Mrs. Sterling will return to Oakland. They will reside at 1266 Franklin street.

Mr. Sterling is known very favorably among the business men of this city, his long association with the postoffice having given him a wide acquaintance.

Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard, who leaves shortly to attend the thirty-fourth annual convention of the National Woman's Suffrage Association and also the International Conference to be held in that connection at Washington, D. C., will be located at the Grafton during her sojourn in that city.

One of the affairs of the week was the party given Saturday afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Stratton, at their home, 911 Market street, when they entertained the Sunday school class of the First Methodist Church. The afternoon was passed in playing games and with an impromptu musical program, but the feature of the affair was the little farce "Six Cups of Chocolate," rendered most successfully by Miss Mabel McCutcheon, Miss Claire Walton, Miss Lucretia Gross, Miss Edna Crouch, Miss J. Lemon and Miss Beatrice Needham.

Later dainty refreshments were served to the guests, who were: Miss Edna McCutcheon, Miss Julia Fielder, Miss Nellie Dickey, Miss Florence Burpee, Miss Maude Crouch, Miss Carrie McCullogh, Miss E. Lenore Fuller, Miss Allie Wilson, Miss Jennie Smith, Miss Clara Harris, Miss Anna Hart, Miss Bertha Luck, Miss Leigh Free, Miss Mamie Connell, Miss Ella Fleming, Miss Clare Walton, Miss Mabel McCutcheon, Miss Minnie Salton, Miss May St. James, Mrs. Ruby Gilsen, Miss Edith Ayres, Miss Minnie Stall, Miss Clara Anderson, Miss Frances Burt, Miss Laura Steele, Miss Maybelle Kellogg, Miss Grace M. Sack, Miss Edna Bolton, Miss Clara Norman, Miss Vivian Clark, Miss Fern Frost, Miss Lucretia Gross, Miss Alice Prole, Miss Margaret Wythe, Miss Mildred Eddy, Miss Irene Stratton, Miss Grace Wright, Miss Edna Crouch, Miss Sadie McCutcheon, Miss Beatrice Needham, Miss J. Lemon and Miss Edith D. Roop.

SERMON ON PHILIPPINES.

"The Philippine Islands as a Field for Protestant Christianity," was the subject of a sermon by Rev. Monroe H. Alexander at Chester street church yesterday evening. The text was "The Isles Shall Wait for His Law."

He said in part: "I belive Providence has thrust the Philippines in our hands for a wise purpose. There is much that is encouraging nothwithstanding the reports which come to us of bad Americans who go there. The isles wait for Christ's law. There are over thirty languages, and the work for this generation, at least, must be done largely in the vernacular; but the people will be won in large numbers and peace and civilization will prevail under American rule."

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine, and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Osgood Bros., druggists, corner Seventh and Broadway. Trial bottles free.

RAILROAD NEWS FROM WEST OAKLAND YARDS.

Company Will Build a New Round House and Machine Shops—Personal and Social Notes About Railroad Men.

It has been definitely settled that the ground now being made west of the yards will be used for the new round-house soon to be built. It will be one of the largest round houses in the West. The house used at present does not accommodate much more than half the engines it should.

About 135 locomotives are at present making this city their headquarters. Only last month five more engines were taken from other divisions to help out on the main lines running out of Oakland. These did not replace other engines, they were simply brought here because the Company was forced, by increased traffic, to have them.

A new machine shop, of large dimensions, will also be constructed on the ground now being filled in.

From statements made by officials of the Company the work of filling in the bay will not cease but will go right on until the whole bay front can be used as far out as deep water, which is in a line with the end of Long Wharf.

Soundings recently made show that from the Eastern end of Long Wharf to the shore the average depth is but fifteen feet only. At the end of Long Wharf the water deepens rapidly and is fifty feet deep within a stone's throw of the wharf. This is attributed to the settled fact that the Sacramento River waters are making a channel between the Island and the Wharf.

FERRY STEAMER BERKELEY BEING REPAIRED.

The big new ferry steamer Berkeley, is now lying at the Oakland Pier after having had her bottom scraped at Doole & Son's ship-yard last week.

This boat cost the Company $250,000 and is called "Kruttschnitt's Pet" by the railroad men. She will probably go on her regular run tomorrow or Wednesday. She will burn oil from now on, the burners being put in recently.

Though accommodating about 3,000 passengers, she has not come up to the expectations of her builders regarding speed. She is operated by propellors and it is claimed that the ferry steamer Newark, now on the ways being repaired will in every respect be a better and more serviceable boat. The Newark is a sidewheeler and marine sharps are of the opinion that a sidewheeler is preferable to a propellor ferryboat when it comes to a question of speed.

The Berkeley has a propellor at either end and one pulls while the other propells as both are in operation at all times when the ferry-boat is in motion. It is said that the propellor does not pull with the power it was supposed it would as, at times, when nearing the shore, the passengers crowd down the forward end of the boat which, while taking power from the forward screw does not hamper the rear one.

DEATH OF A CAPABLE RAILROAD MAN.

The flag on the block system signal office at West Oakland yards has been at half mast for several days, owing to the recent death of W. F. Eastman, the company's signal engineer at Houston, Texas.

Mr. Eastman was formerly connected with the pier block system and was well-known and well liked among railroad men. The remains arrived here yesterday and his relatives in this city will lay him to rest in the family plot at Mountain View Cemetery.

SEARCH-LIGHT ON GOAT ISLAND.

Southern Pacific officials are considering the advisability of asking the government to place the largest searchlight in the world on the highest point of Goat Island. They believe that were this done the danger of collisions between ferry boats during a night of fog would be reduced to a minimum—if not entirely eliminated.

It is argued that nearly all the fogs which endanger safe traffic on the bay at night are blanket mists which at times reach to a height of 200 feet.

A powerful searchlight on the top of the island could, it is stated, send obliquely, shafts of light which would enable pilots to discern their course.

Fifteen hundred yards of soft bay bottom are being dredged out daily on the south side of the broad-gauge pier.

The dredger at work is No. 321 of the Central Pacific Company and is in charge of Captain Bonnett.

The slickens pumped out is taken to the center of the bay by barges and thrown overboard.

The place being depeened was dredged out only three years ago, but inasmuch as a current from the mouth of the Sacramento passes near the pier, the harbor bottom has filled in three feet since the last dredging.

When the work being done at the pier is finished, the dredger will move to Long Wharf, where the same current has made the water three feet shallower in the past three years.

NEWS NOTES FROM OLD LONG WHARF.

The scow, Carrier Dove, which was blown over and sunk at Long wharf during the high wind of last Tuesday night, is lying in about fifteen feet of water. One of Capt. Whitelaw's wrecking barges is at work trying to raise the sunken boat, but with slow success. The scow is loaded with scrap iron and the wreckers are now removing the heavy cargo, preparatory to raising the boat with large derricks.

It is expected that the sunken boat will be out of her watery berth by next Wednesday.

While at work handling lumber at Long wharf Friday, Harry Brown, a stevedore, was struck by a falling timber and received serious injuries to his left foot. The injured man was taken to his home and will be laid up for some time.

The British ship Pericles, Captain Henderson, was discharging a cargo of nitrate of soda at Long wharf this week. The nitrate comes from Chile and will be used by the several powder manufactories in this locality.

The Pericles will finish discharging next week, when she will go to San Francisco and Port Costa to load grain for Liverpool.

The British ship Wayfarer, Captain Tupman, is at the wharf this week, having her large cargo of coke, pig-iron, ammonia and fire brick unloaded. The cargo was taken on at Tyne, England. She will go to San Francisco tomorrow and load breadstuffs for England.

The schooner Onward, now unloading lumber from Oregon, was damaged somewhat by the big wind last week. Her starboard rail was torn away by grinding against the wharf. She will finish discharging tomorrow, when she will sail for Coos Bay for lumber.

The American ship W. H. Smith arrived at the wharf Friday from San Francisco. She is loading sugar pine lumber for Australia.

The American ship R. P. Rithet, Captain McPhale, sailed for Honolulu yesterday with a cargo of merchandise bound for Honolulu.

The British ship Clifton ford is discharging a cargo of English coal at Long Wharf. When unloaded she will go to Port Costa and receive grain for England.

The steamer Washtenaw, Captain Parker, arrived last night from Tacoma with a coal cargo for the Southern Pacific Company.

The steamer Point Arena left Long Wharf Friday for northern lumber mills.

The steamer Greenwood, Captain Johnson, left Long Wharf Thursday after unloading a lumber cargo for the Southern Pacific Company.

The steamers Argo, Sequoia and Phoenix were at Long Wharf last week. After unloading lumber they left for northern points.

Things are quiet around the Long Wharf coal bunkers. The Southern Pacific Company formerly had many colliers at the bunkers regularly, but owing to the fact that oil is now used almost wholly on the locomotives and ferryboats the coal bunkers are used but little.

RAILROAD GETS THE TRANSIT BUSINESS.

Travel on the Seventh street local trains between Broadway and Fruitvale is increasing daily. The wretched service maintained by the Oakland Transit Company is driving the former patrons of the street car lines to the railroad trains, and this fact is causing the company's officials to believe that it would be a wise move to put on more coaches and larger engines on the run from the mole to Fruitvale.

The people living in Fruitvale, East Oakland and at Clinton station have become disgusted with the worn-out cars and damaged roadbed of the Transit Company, and as a result are forced to travel on the Southern Pacific trains when coming to Oakland.

An official of the Southern Pacific Company made the statement this morning that a daily increase of patronage on the trains between Broadway and Fruitvale was noticeable. He said that the railroad company would be forced to do something—and do it soon—to accommodate the growing traffic.

PERSONAL NEWS OF THE RAILROAD MEN.

Train Gateman Patrick Kennedy has been transferred from the Seventh street local run to the Berkeley flyer.

Car Inspector George Anderson, who has been working at the pier, has returned to his regular position in the yards.

Charles Christensen, foreman of the material gang, will soon leave on a vacation. He will while away visit relatives in Ireland.

Charles Beals, who has been working at Tucson, Arizona, has returned to work in the painting department.

Clerk Joe Preese, who is employed in Master Mechanic McKenzie's office, has been making frequent visits to East Oakland lately, and the boys are wondering when the engagement will be announced.

Train Gateman Fuller is confined to his home in East Oakland by a severe attack of pleura-pneumonia.

Frederick Swendson, oil pumper, has returned to work after an illness of several weeks.

Engineer A. G. Phipps, at his own request, has been given runs Nos. 49 and 50, between Oakland and Fresno. His former runs were Nos. 7 and 8.

"Dr." Muir of the storekeeper's department received a bad fall by the collapse of a ladder Saturday. His back and arm were wrenched severely. "Dr." Muir is one of the most popular boys in the yard and is slated for promotion.

Engineers Wilson and Weymouth have returned to their regular runs after a week's leave of absence, during which time they were on a hunting trip to Sunol canyon.

They bagged plenty of rabbits and quail and were for a time on the trail of the famous lion which is now rampant in the canyon.

Timothy Harrington is now back at work in the shops after an illness of two weeks.

Car Repairer W. W. McQuaide, stationed at the pier, is now confined to his home by a bad case of tonsolitis.

C. B. Irish is now at Mendota, where he is acting foreman of the roundhouse. The regular foreman, P. J. Flynn, was struck by a beam several days ago and received serious injuries about the head. He was removed to the company's hospital in San Francisco and is reported as mending rapidly.

Robert Yates, foreman of the machine shops, is confined to his home by illness, and his absence is deeply regretted by the many employes of the shops. Mr. Yates has been in the employ of the company for years, and though carrying heavy responsibilities is never lacking in that cordiality and sympathy which have made him so well liked among the machinists.

O. Johnson of the lumber gang was seriously hurt last week by being struck by a large timber as it rolled from a car. He was rendered unconscious by the blow and was removed to his home, where it was found he had sustained a fractured leg. He will be confined to bed for some time.

EATING IN HAVANA. Yankees Club Together.

In Havana it is the custom to serve only bread and coffee for breakfast. A little colony of Americans that felt they could not do their work until noon on this kind of a diet clubbed together and began importing Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food.

One of them writing about the matter says, "The modern cooking range had never been known in Cuba until the American occupation, and even now they are scarce, so that a ready cooked food like Grape-Nuts recommends itself to start with; then the Yankees were accustomed to the food and felt they could hardly get along without it. They began buying in five case lots and one by one the larger grocery stores began keeping Grape-Nuts in stock so the business spread until now great quantities of Grape-Nuts are used in Cuba, and it is not only used by the Americans but the other inhabitants as well."

This is an illustration of the way the famous food has pushed itself into all parts of the world. Wherever English speaking people go they demand Grape-Nuts. They can be found in South Africa, Egypt, India, China, Japan, Australia, and South America.

Many Americans speak of the homelike feeling it gives them to see the numberless busses in the streets of London decorated with great blue signs with the word, "Grape-Nuts," done in yellow letters, and all over England the great purveying shops distribute Grape-Nuts.

English roast beef has largely given way to American roast beef, and the old-fashioned English breakfast of bacon and potatoes is now supplemented with Grape-Nuts and cream. The change was made for a reason. It has been discovered that almost magical power rest within the little granules, and this power is set free in the body that makes use of the famous food.

MARTINEZ HAS A POISON CASE

RICHARD WHITLOCK ARRESTED FOR THE MURDER OF HIS WIFE.

MARTINEZ, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Richard Whitlock of this place died very suddenly early Sunday morning under circumstances so peculiar that her husband has been taken into custody, pending the result of the Coroner's inquest.

About 2 o'clock Sunday morning, neighbors were awakened by Whitlock, who said his wife was either dead or dying. Physicians were summoned, but the woman was dead when they arrived.

The husband, who is an employe of the Peyton Chemical Company, was immediately placed under arrest by peace officers, who had been notified of the affair.

Whitlock told the arresting officers that he had just been discharged from the County Hospital during the last week, and that on returning home his suspicions concerning his wife's fidelity were then awakened, and that since then they both had lived as strangers.

Sunday morning, he claims, his wife came to his room, moaning and crying. Before he could assist her, she sank to the floor in a dying condition.

He then claims to have aroused the neighbors and sought medical aid.

An autopsy revealed the presence of a large quantity of poison in the dead woman's stomach, which the physicians believe to be wood alcohol.

Whitlock professes to be grieved over his wife's death.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES FROM FRUITVALE.

FRUITVALE, Feb. 3.—L. M. Sanford of Seminary avenue met with a painful accident the other day. While driving to his home from Oakland, his horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. Sanford managed to hold to the wagon for several blocks, but was finally thrown to the ground when the horse made a sharp turn. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to his home. It is reported that he received no serious injuries, but was badly cut and bruised.

The old building on the San Leandro road near High street, which was used for some time as a temporary school, is being remodeled and will be converted into a store, when completed.

Edward Hommar, who resides on the San Leandro road, has gone to Fresno, where he will attend to his business interests.

E. B. STONE COMMENCES WORK ON BIG CONTRACT.

ELMHURST, Feb. 3.—E. B. Stone has commenced work on the big China Basin contract in San Francisco. The contract is one of the largest of its kind ever attempted by the Stone Company, and it will take many months to complete the work. Two hundred horses will be used in the filling process. L. Toffelmier will have charge of the work. The contract was awarded by the Santa Fe Company.

Elmhurst Lodge of Odd Fellows conferred the first degree on eleven candidates the other evening. Porter Lodge of Oakland performed the ceremony. A large delegation from San Leandro Lodge No. 231, as well as many Odd Fellows from other neighboring towns, attended the meeting.

STONE'S MACHINE SHOP CROWDED WITH WORK.

ELMHURST, Feb. 3.—The big machine shop on Stone's ranch is crowded with work. A large number of men are constructing feed wagons and other paraphernalia to be used on the big railroad contract which is now being worked in Nevada. The wheels and trucks of these feed wagons are being made of the trucks of United States Army gun and ammunition wagons purchased some time ago from the Government. The wheels of the carriages being too large, they are being cut down to the regular. There are being made some thirty of these feed wagons, which are more than twenty feet long.

Motorman Andecot went hunting the other day and secured eight ducks. Andecot has quite a reputation as a hunter of wild game.

GEN. DICKINSON INSPECTS FRUITVALE CADETS.

FRUITVALE, Feb. 3.—The Fruitvale Cadets gave a drill practice the other day before Major-General Dickinson of the National Guards. The General was well impressed with the work of the boys and commended them highly upon their progress. He also gave them a few valuable points. The Cadets are now arranging for an entertainment which will take place in the near future.

Ah Wah Nee Tribe of Redmen gave a social evening in honor of several chiefs from San Francisco Friday night. The affair was well attended and after a short program, refreshments were served.

JAP KILLED IN A QUARREL NEAR MARTINEZ.

As the result of a quarrel, caused by drink, a Japanese was killed yesterday afternoon at the John Swett vineyard, a few miles beyond Martinez. Two Japanese, residing in Sacramento, were visiting their countrymen regularly employed at the vineyard. A dispute arose and an attempt was made to drive the visitors away. One of the Japs drew a pistol and fired at the vineyard hands. In attempting to disarm the belligerent Jap, the pistol was again discharged, instantly killing the owner of the fire arm.

All the Japs concerned have been placed under arrest.

PRESIDENT WHEELER WILL TALK TO ENDEAVORERS.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California has consented to make the principal address at the annual convention of the Alameda County Christian Endeavor Convention, which will be held February 14 at the First Methodist Church. The topic of the collegian's address will be "Strenuous Endeavor in Civic Life."

SWEARS OUT COMPLAINT.

George F. Weeks of the Encinal Publishing Company of Alameda has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of E. A. Allen, an advertising man, who it is alleged embezzled $35 from the company two years ago.

BULLDOG ATTACKS VALUABLE HORSE

CANINE HAD TO BE SHOT BEFORE HE WOULD RELEASE HIS GRIP.

IRVINGTON, Feb. 3.—A vicious English bulldog, brought from San Francisco several days ago by R. Hastman, made a savage attack on a valuable horse at Brightside yesterday.

The horse belongs to F. Sheldon of Brightside. Mr. Sheldon was about to hitch the horse to a cart when without warning the maddened bulldog made a flying leap and fastened his teeth in the left shoulder of the horse. The stablemen working near seized boards and shovels and began to beat the dog to make him let go, but without success. At last a revolver was gotten and the dog was shot while still holding on with his fangs. A veterinary surgeon was sent for and upon his arrival it was found necessary to put eighteen stitches in the wound to close it.

FUNERAL HELD.

IRVINGTON, Feb. 3.—The funeral of George McCollough here was largely attended. The interment took place at Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

NEWS NOTES.

IRVINGTON, Feb. 3.—Miss Kate Power of Warm Springs is visiting friends at Madrone.

Mrs. T. Harrison of Warm Springs is lying dangerously ill at her home there.

LIVELY RIDE FOR A WHEELMAN

THE SUBURBAN COMPANY GUADRS AGAINST ACCIDENTS IN HAYWARDS.

HAYWARDS, Feb. 3.—R. Reid, the popular druggist of this place, met with a few accidents the other night which he will not forget for some time.

While riding his bicycle from his home to the drug store, Mr. Reid first had a lively dodging match with a milk wagon. After safely passing this vehicle and thinking he was on a clear road, he suddenly came in contact with a man, and together they rolled in the dark. The victim of the accident was aged Mr. McKinney, who was uninjured by the fall. Again picking himself up and adjusting his wheel, which was somewhat twisted, Mr. Reid resumed his voyage towards town. Thinking that he had surely passed everything on the road, the druggist hastened his speed. Suddenly two huge black objects loomed up before his frightened eyes and by the closest margin Reid managed to get around two hay wagons. By this time the rider was thoroughly rattled and when he reached the store it was found necessary to administer stimulants so that he would be able to attend to his duties.

In a recent examination of the wiring of the local houses, made by representatives of the Suburban Electric Company, it was found that in a great many instances it will be necessary to re-wire the buildings, as the present insulation is either not heavy enough, or worn by friction, that it is dangerous to use. The extra precautions of the Suburban Company are due to the high voltage of their current which will shortly be on the wires. Should the wires not be properly insulated, fires might result. Mr. Burge, head lineman for the company, has personally attended to the investigation, so there is no need for alarm among the patrons of the company.

Ed. McKinney, who has been connected with the Haywards Electric Light Company for a number of years, has resigned his position to accept another with the Spring Valley Water Company at Crystal Lake, San Mateo county. He has received a number of requests to wire local houses before he leaves, and to attend to this work it will delay his departure for several days. He has been succeeded by Elmer Patterson as engineer at the works. Secretary O'Brien will attend to the collecting in the future.

On the evening of February 12th the Native Daughters will celebrate the first anniversary of the organization of their parlor. The evening will be spent playing games, while refreshments will be served. The first year of Haywards Parlor of Native Daughters has been a most successful one, and the young ladies are greatly elated over their success.

Next Saturday the Fraternal Brotherhood will give their dance at Native Sons' Hall. The affair will be one of the big occasions of the year and a large attendance is expected. Special committees are preparing decorations for the hall.

Saturday the Woodmen of Mt. Eden gave a dance and social evening at their hall. A great many people from Haywards attended the dance.

SACRED CONCERT FOR HAYWARDS

AN INTERESTING SURPRISE PARTY AT THE HOME OF P. WILPERT.

HAYWARDS, Feb. 3.—The sacred concert which will be given here shortly in memory of the late President McKinley promises to be one of the most impressive occasions in the history of Haywards. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Veterans' League, and will be arranged by Mrs. I. W. Kersey.

A program which will include the best musicians in Haywards and also a number from surrounding cities, is being prepared by the committee in charge.

The proceeds of this concert will be used by the veterans towards improving their lot in the cemetery. This plot of land was given the old soldiers some time ago and they are preparing to improve it.

It is thought a large audience will be present at the coming concert, as it will be an opportunity of years in which to hear some of the best music ever presented in Haywards.

GAVE A DANCE.

Saturday night the S. P. R. S. I. held their dance at the Native Sons' Hall, which place was well filled with young people. The dance was a great success, there being many people present from surrounding places.

Next Saturday night the Fraternal Brotherhood will give their dance at the Native Sons' Hall. In addition to the large crowd which is expected from this place, there will be three carloads from Oakland and intermediate places.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A surprise party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Wilpert the other evening. The members of the family were about to retire when they were surprised by the arrival of fourteen friends dressed in sheets. For a moment Mr. and Mrs. Wilpert thought they had a ghost crowd in the house, but all was righted when the masks were removed.

The guests spent a delightful evening playing cards and games. Supper was served at 11 o'clock and it was an early hour before the party broke up.

Following are those who were present at the affair: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kennard, Mr. and Mrs. E. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. P. Wilpert, Mrs. Kelsey and Miss Welsh.

SECRET MARRIAGE.

The secret marriage of Fred Mohr, of this place leaked out last week. Mohr has now acknowledged that he has been married since December 9th. The bride was Mrs. Carrie Maas nee Reu. The newly married couple will take up their residence in this place in a short time.

LIGHTS FOR SAN LEANDRO

SUBURBAN COMPANY IS NOW WELL RECEIVED IN THE COUNTRY TOWN.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 3.—The residents of this place have many times attempted to secure electric lights for the town, but in every attempt they have been defeated, until the arrival of the Suburban Company. Last Friday night San Leandro for the first time had electric lights in its private homes and business blocks. It was the intention of the Suburban Company to turn on the power several weeks ago, but owing to the delay caused by the non-arrival of the transformers it was impossible to furnish the light any sooner. As it is, the Suburban Company has installed temporary transformers at the Elmhurst station until the large ones arrive from the East.

The people of San Leandro have so far patronized the new company in a manner entirely satisfactory to the latter. It was thought for a time that the Electric Light Company would not be favorably received, but at the rate the business houses and private residences are being wired it would appear as if the entire town would shortly be lighted by electricity. The places now wired include the principal business houses, the Post-office and the Town Hall. The power will be turned on at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will remain on all night.

The Suburban Electric Light Company has also secured the contract to light the San Leandro road, which contract was previously held by the Oakland Transit Company. It will receive $201.40 a month for lighting the road and the contract will go into effect on March 15.

TIN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Avellar celebrated their tin wedding last week at their home in this place.

A party was given in honor of the occasion with the following friends present: Mr. and Mrs. Gularte, Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Alameda; Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Enos, the Misses Annie Gularte, Mamie Silva, Vivian Santos, Frances Enos; Messrs. A. J. Santos, J. J. Barbeiro, J. A. Cunha, M. J. Bettencourt, Joseph Bettencourt, Manuel Freitas, Antone Miller, Herbert Skillen, Joseph Cordeiro and Vernet Brady.

BALDWIN'S BUY.

"Lucky" Baldwin was in San Leandro last week. He purchased a traction engine, plow and harvester from the Best Company. It appears that Mr. Baldwin had a Stockton engine at work on his large ranch in the southern part of the State, but the machine did not work to his satisfaction and he has purchased one of the Best make.

JUDGE NYE'S LECTURE.

Judge S. G. Nye of Oakland will lecture in San Leandro in the near future on "The Water Supply of Palestine and Syria." The Judge is a very entertaining talker and a large crowd will no doubt attend the lecture.

PERSONAL.

John Hopper has returned from Fresno, where he went to attend the funeral of his step-brother, Chris Mathiesen.

WOULD NOT ACCEPT HOGUET'S RESIGNATION

Colonel George W. Hoguet, commanding officer of the Army and Navy Republican League, Camp No. 2, tendered his resignation at a meeting of the organization held Saturday evening at Becker's Hall. The camp, by a unanimous vote, refused to accept his withdrawal from the office to which he was elected four weeks ago and by their action forever set at rest the charge that the Colonel's election had been an unfair one.

The meeting Saturday evening was the first since the election of new officers recently.

The hall was crowded with veterans and honorary members, and after Colonel Hoguet had asked Lieutenant Colonel G. W. Calderwood to take the chair he said:

"Four weeks ago I was elected Colonel of this league. Reports were put into circulation that my election was unfair. You will remember that I stated at the time that if there should arise any dissension in regard to my election or the conduct of my office, that I would resign. I now wish to tender my resignation." And suiting his action to his words, he stepped forward and handed his resignation to Colonel Calderwood, who was in the chair.

After a dozen speeches had been made by members, protesting against the acceptance of the resignation, a vote was taken and every member present voted to refuse the resignation. Tremendous applause followed the vote, and then Colonel D. M. Hyde said:

"If there had been any question as to the legality of Colonel Hoguet's election I am the one who should have entered a protest, for I was the opposing candidate. Colonel Hoguet's election over me was more than two to one, and his election was fair and square, for I stood by myself and watched every vote that was cast." Continuing, Colonel Hyde said that George W. Hoguet had done more for the soldiers of Alameda county than any two men that could be named. That no man outside of Colonel Hoguet could harmonize the veterans of this county, and that the best proof of that fact was the vote just taken. In conclusion he said: "When in an assembly as large as this not a single dissenting voice is heard the proof of his popularity is conclusive."

After the general routine of business was over, a letter from Colonel E. W. Woodward was read acknowledging the receipt of the league's action in regard to his re-election as a member, in which he thanked the league and promised his hearty co-operation with it in the future.

A letter was read from A. C. Myers, Colonel of Fort Ones Army and Navy league, congratulating Colonel Hoguet on his published utterance respecting the political attitude of all veterans in the coming campaign.

WILL REGISTER IN THE COUNTRY

COUNTY CLERK JORDAN AND DEPUTIES WILL MAKE A TOUR.

County Clerk Jordan is making arrangements to have a force of his deputies make a tour of the various towns in the county and register voters for the fall elections. The canvass will begin next Saturday and will continue until every town has been visited, after which the registration of Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda citizens will be commenced.

The plan of country registration was tried two years ago and proved very successful. Two years ago the total registration was 28,500. This year it is expected that the enrollment will show over 30,000 names.

It is necessary to have an early registration in the country on account of the elections to be held in some of the towns.

Elections are to be held in April at Livermore, Pleasanton, Haywards and San Leandro. In August the general primary election is to be held, and the State election will follow in November.

Registration will close shortly before the primaries are held, but will be reopened again and remain open until within forty days of the general election.

GREAT STORM

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.— The tugs John E. Berwin and E. S. Atwood, which were sent to the stranded Steamer Cavour at Long Beach yesterday, were unable to return to port and both sank about eleven miles east of the Sandy Hook lightship. The crews were rescued by the German steamer Barcelona. The tugs left the Cavour about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and within an hour both were in a sinking condition. The seas broke over the craft and washed away everything movable, the water gradually filing the holds until it was above the floor of the fireroom and began to put out the fires. The Berwind's pilot house was smashed and the water flooded her fireroom. About 5:30 o'clock the Barcelona was seen approaching and the tugs steered toward her to ask assistance. She stopped and made a good lee so that the tugs were able to run alongside. A rope ladder was lowered and the men from the tugs scrambled on board. Fourteen men all told were saved, seven from each tug. Fifteen minutes after the rescue the craft went down and some time later the Berwind disappeared.

Fire Island reported a ship ashore at Point Lookout and a barge in distress near the Forge River Life Saving Station. The barge was anchored about two miles off shore and was rolling badly. Those on shore could not tell whether there was any one on board the barge.

Fire Island also reported that the beach five miles east of the Belleport Life Saving Station was covered with wreckage and it was believed that a coal barge had been lost.

The steamship Cavour, which stranded several days ago off Long Beach, L. I., weathered the gale well and with the dredge and lines which she has out hold her position well. No effort will be made to pull her off until the weather becomes settled.

TESTIMONIAL FOR CAPTAIN M'KENZIE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Today in the Mechanics' Library, in the presence of twelve members of a general committee, Captain John Taylor McKenzie, formerly of the steamship San Rafael, was presented with a testimonial as a mark of the high esteem in which he is held by those who had long traveled across the Bay with him on the ill-fated boat.

The testimonial, which was signed by nearly 700 people, was in the shape of a heavy silver shield, mounted on polished wood. On the upper part of the shield is beautifully engraved a perfect picture of the San Rafael, and immediately under it is the following inscription:

"To Captain John Taylor McKenzie, Master Mariner, San Francisco Harbor: We, who have been passengers for many years on the steamer San Rafael while under your command, have had ample opportunity of recognizing your skill, courage and caution as a navigator, your ability as a commander and your courtesy as a gentleman.

"These attributes were never more in evidence than in the hour of the late accident, when, through no fault of yours, your vessel was sunk in collision with the steamer Sausalito, and where it was due entirely to your prompt action in lashing the vessels together, and your thoughtful consideration of those under your care that the loss of life was very small, when an immense loss would otherwise have been inevitable. In evidence of our appreciation we ask your acceptance of this small token of our gratitude and continued confidence and esteem.

"On behalf of 650 subscribers hereto, January 10, 1902.

"C. W. WRIGHT,
"Chairman of Committee.

"BENJAMIN SCOULEW, Secretary."

KELLY'S CARS ARE IN THE WAY.

The East Oakland Improvement Club filed a petition with City Clerk Church today which asks the City Council to order the Oakland Transit Company to replace its tracks on Commerce street. The petition sets forth that the tracks at present are but five feet from the sidewalk and the Club asks that they be removed to the center of the street.

The petition also states that a high rate of speed is maintained on the street in question and the Council is requested to order the company to reduce the speed of its cars in that locality. The petition states, in this connection, that at least one death can be attributed to the rapid speed maintained.

FIRST UNIVERSITY EXTENSION LECTURES THIS SEASON.

The first of the series of University Extension lectures to be given in Oakland this season will take place tomorrow, February 4th, in the Common School Assembly Hall at Eleventh and Grove streets. It will begin at 3:30 o'clock, and like all the Extension lectures, will be entirely free to the public. The series will consist of five lectures on the "Chemistry of Every-day Life" and will begin with the subject of water. The composition, formation and properties of water and of its constituted parts will be explained and illustrated experimentally, by Edward Booth of the chemical department of the University.

CHARGED WITH BEING A SILK-HAT BURGLAR.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—A man giving his name as Edward P. Fake, also known as William Gibson, said to be engaged to marry the daughter of a Cleveland millionaire, and whose mother is said to be the owner of property in New York, Chicago and California, is under arrest here, charged with burglary. The police claim to have discovered his identity through a letter dated last October at Los Angeles, California, from the young man's mother.

Fake, with eight others, is charged with committing numerous "silk-hat" burglaries. The police say he has admitted some of them. Fake and his comrades, it is said, worked in silk hats and dress suits and traveled in a closed carriage to avert suspicion.

WEALTHY FEMALE BEGGAR HAS BEEN CONVICTED.

Mrs. Josephine Dyce, the wealthy beggar of East Oakland, was found guilty of begging this morning in the Police Court and was ordered taken into custody. She will come up for sentence tomorrow morning.

During the testimony Mrs. Dyce swore that Patrolman McSorley, the arresting officer, had grossly insulted her a few months before, but, she said, when she refused to agree to his proposals he said he would get even.

When it developed what McSorley was not on the beat at the time of the alleged insult Mrs. Dyce had nothing to say.

WALTER MATHEWS LIGHTS THE ATHENIAN CLUB FIRE.

By an oversight mention of the ceremony of lighting the Fire was omitted from the count of the Athenian Club house warming. The honor of lighting the fire was reserved for Walter J. Mathews, the architect of the building, as a special mark of honor. At the close of the chirps the Athenians gathered in the assembly room and Mr. Math ws kindled the first fire lighted on the hearthstone of the new club.

KELLY MAKES TARDY CONCESSION TO THE PUBLIC.

Manager Kelly of the Oakland Transit Company made a change on the San Pablo avenue line yesterday which should have been made long ago. He ordered the San Pablo avenue cars to run clear through to West Berkeley and not stop at Golden Gate and leave passengers to wait in the rain until a transfer car came down from West Berkeley and picked them up, as has been done heretofore.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY'S APPEAL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Admiral Evans, Captain Clark and Commander Wainwright had a conference of several hours with the President today on the matter of the appeal of Admiral Schley from the findings of the Court of Inquiry. It is not thought that the President's answer will be ready for some time yet. In the meantime it is believed to be the President's purpose to confer with a number of the more important officers who gave testimony before the Court. While the officers were with the President today he denied himself to all callers.

CHINA'S FIRST PAYMENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Cablegrams have been received at the State Department from United States Minister Conger at Peking announcing that he has received the first payment from the Chinese government on account of the indemnity. He will hold the money to his order until after the qualification of the trust company which is about to undertake to do an American banking business n China and the Philippines.

ASSESSMENT SUIT.

Assistant City Attorney Condon, on behalf of City Tax Collector Taylor, filed a demurrer today to the sixteen suits brought against the Tax Collector by owners of property on Washington street. The sixteen suits were brought to prevent the Tax Collector from declaring the property delinquent on account of unpaid increased assessments.

SMALLPOX AT BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, Feb. 3rd.—This morning it was discovered that several little children in the family of Patrick Johnson, of Addison and McGee streets were stricken with small-pox. Health Officer Rowell at once quarantined the premises.

YOUNG WIFE DIES.

Mrs. Madeline Underwood, aged 23 years, died last Saturday night at the Fabiola Hospital, after a week's illness. The deceased resided at 2342 May street in Berkeley. She was a native daughter.

The funeral will be held tomorrow. The interment will take place in Mountain View Cemetery.

SUPREME COURT ADJOURNS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The United States Supreme Court adjourned today until Feburary 24th. The Court did not announce a decision in the Northern Pacific merger case and that case now necessarily goes over until after the recovening of the Court.

DESPERATE ACT OF BANDITS.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Feb. 3.—News has been received here that seven bandits entered the Pecos Mercantile Company's store at Fort Sumner, N. M., shot Felipe Beaubien dead, beat Francisco Zamora senseless, stole $600 worth of goods, robbed the Postoffice and escaped.

VALUABLES ARE STOLEN.

Paul Carroll, of 125 Thirteenth street reported to the Police Department today that his room had been entered and his trunk ransacked. He stated that a quantity of valuables are missing.

A CASE OF SMALLPOX.

The Health Office was informed today that Mrs. Halford of 448 East Twentieth street was suffering from smallpox.

It is said the ailment was contracted when she visited her neighbor, Mrs. Armstrong, who lives near by and who was at first treated for chickenpox.

JEROME'S WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late E. B. Jerome was probated today. By the terms of the document the decedent's two sons, E. B. Jerome, Jr. and Leonard S. Jerome receive but $10 each, the remainder of the estate being left to the only daughter, Miss Ethelbert A. Jerome.

TAYLOR LOST HIS OVERCOAT.

City Treasurer Taylor lost a fine overcoat at the Athenian Club yesterday. The coat was found today in a second hand clothing store at 457 Seventh street by an officer armed with a search warrant.

MRS. WHITE'S RESIGNATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The Executive Board of the California Club today refused to accept Mrs. White's resignation, and she was asked to reconsider the same.

MANY PEOPLE ARE KILLED.

GRAZ, Austria, Feb. 3.—An avalanche from Mount Bobratch has partially overwhelmed the village of Bleiberg, near the town of Villach. A number of persons have been killed.

"NOBBY" CLARK IS DEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Alfred Clark, formerly well known as "Nobby" Clark, died this morning at his home in this city, aged 69 years. Clark was best known about ten years ago as clerk of the Chief of Police. Clark essayed to practice law after his connection with the Police Department ceased, and his eccentricities involved him in some peculiar positions. He had financial troubles also and the property he had accumulated during his long life became tied up through suits and counter-suits. He was twice married.

R. Pringle has commenced an action in Justice Quinn's court to secure $41.70 from Neil McLeod for merchandise purchased by the department.

Heaton, Hobson Company have commenced a suit in Justice Quinn's Court to recover $25 from Alice Wells, for merchandise assigned by S. P. Baldwin.

Heaton, Hobson Company has filed an action against Milo J. Olmstead, et al., to secure $6, the amount of merchandise assigned by J. C. Daley. The suit was filed in Justice Quinn's Court.

E. Weidler has brought suit in Justice Quinn's court against P. Hildsreth to secure $30, which plaintiff loaned the defendant.

WILL SUCCEED INGERSOLL.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 3.—Rev. E. J. Roberts, pastor of the Church of This World, of this city, it is said, is to be the head of the Agnostic Church and assume the mantle of Colonel Robert Ingersoll, if the plans of the trustees of the organization are successful. They have decided to expand the local church so that the Agnostics all over the world will be included in its membership, and Dr. Roberts is to be sent to every part of the United States to organize churches. Dr. Roberts was a close personal friend of Colonel Ingersoll.

HENRY SEVENING'S ESTATE TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

The residue of the estate of the late Henry Sevening, the Alameda banker, has been ordered distributed to the three hairs, Johanna Miller, Lulu Collischonn, and Alma Sevening. It consists of the property 90 x 100 feet at the southeast corner of Eleventh and Washington streets, Oakland, which carries a mortgage of $25,000 held by the University Regents.

COLD WAVE IN EAST.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Chicago suffered severely from the cold wave today, the mercury at 7 o'clock being 5 degrees below zero and at 10 o'clock 2 below. An inmate of the Old People's Home was frozen to death and John R. Davis of Glenville, Illinois, was taken to the hospital with his hands so badly frozen that amputation may be necessary.

At the County Hospital it was said that "Young Griffo," the pugilist, whose hands and feet were frozen last night was in a serious condition. The physicians could not state whether amputation would be necessary.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—At 7 a. m. today the temperature in various cities was reported as follows: New York, 22; Philadelphia, 18; Washington, 16; Chicago, 6 below; Minneapolis, 6 below; Cincinnati, 0; St. Louis, 6; San Francisco, 42.

PETERSON IS LOYAL TO HIS UNCLE SAM.

Axel G. Peterson was this morning admitted to citizenship, after an excellent examination by Judge Ogden. Peterson is a native of Sweden, 27 years old, and came to California ten years ago. His answers showed that he had carefully studied the Constitution.

"Have you any family in Sweden?" asked Judge Ogden.

"A mother and a brother," answered Peterson.

"Suppose King Oscar and Uncle Sam should go to war, would you have any scruples about fighting for America?"

"None, whatever."

"Even if your brother were in the King's army?"

"That would make no difference. I would be loyal to Uncle Sam."

LIQUORS IN THEIR PURITY.

Frank Pereira Has an Excellent Grade of Wines for Medicinal Purposes.

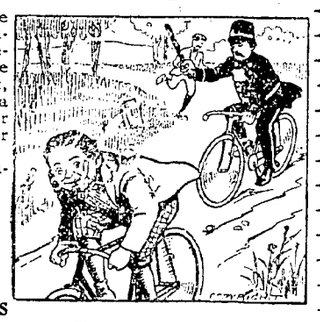

Those who desire liquors or wines for cases where they must have the pure article should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain the same from Frank Pereira, southeast corner of Washington and Eighth streets. The gentleman has a splendid invoice of aged and pure liquids, both imported and domestic, and as a result enjoys a large family patronage. His prices are reasonable at all times and your orders promptly delivered. Mr. Pereira also carries a stock of cigars second to none hereabouts, and his trade in this direction is very extended, which speaks volumes for the quality he disposes of.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

No. 15062. Department 3.

The Union Savings Bank (a corporation), plaintiff, vs. Mary Stewart, as administratrix of the estate of Ellen Stewart, deceased, et al. defendants.

Under and by virtue of an Order of Sale and Decree of Foreclosure and Sale issued out of the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, of the State of California, on the 10th day of January, 1902, in the above entitled action, wherein The Union Savings Bank (a corporation), the above named plaintiff, obtained a Judgment and Decree of Foreclosure and Sale against Mary Stewart, as Administratrix of the estate of Ellen Stewart, deceased, Sarah E. Henderson, Charles Henderson, The Occidental Building and Loan Association, a corporation, Wm. Edwards, and Elizabeth M. Ford, defendants, on the 20th day of December A. D. 1901, for the sum of Twenty-nine hundred twenty 92-100 ($2920.79) dollars, in United States Gold Coin, with costs, $35.10, amounting in all to $2955.83, which said Judgment and Decree were on the 8th day of January, A. D. 1902, recorded in Judgment Book No. 44 of said Court, at page 473, I am commanded to sell all that certain piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point formed by the intersection of the southerly line of Lydia Street, with the easterly line of Curtis street; running thence easterly along said line of Lydia street one hundred (100) feet; thence at right angles southerly fifty (50) feet; thence at right angles westerly one hundred (100) feet to said line of Curtis Street and running thence northerly thereon fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning.

Being lot Number 4 in Block lettered "J" (303) as same is delineated and so designated upon a certain map of Curtis and Williams Tract of Oakland, etc., filed and recorded September 9th, 1868, in Liber 36 of Deeds, page 172, in the office of the County Recorder of said Alameda County together with the tenements, improvements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereon.

Public notice is hereby given that on TUESDAY, THE 4TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1902.

at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, in front of the Broadway entrance of the Court House of the County of Alameda, in the City of Oakland, I will, in obedience to said Order of Sale and Decree of Foreclosure and Sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder, for Gold Coin of the United States.

Oakland, Cal., January 11, 1902.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of Charles S. Johnson, deceased, No. 6,672, Department No. 4.

Order to show cause on application for power to sell real property.

Wm. B. Pringle Administrator of the estate of Charles S. Johnson, deceased, having presented his verified petition praying for an order of this court authorizing him, as such administrator, to sell certain real property belonging to the estate of said decedent; and it duly appearing therefrom to the satisfaction of the court that it would be for the advantage, benefit and best interests of the estate and of those interested therein that certain pieces of real property belonging to said estate, in said petition described, should be sold, for the purposes and reasons in said petition set forth; and all and singular the law and the premises being by the court, herein seen, heard, understood and fully considered; wherefore,

It is by the court here ordered that all persons interested in said estate do appear before this court on Monday, the 10th day of February, 1902, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the court room of this court, Department No. 4 thereof, in the Court House of Alameda County, then and there to show cause, if any they have, why an order should not be made in the matter of said estate, authorizing and directing the said administrator to sell at public or private sale, as he shall deem most beneficial to said estate, the interest of said estate in all that certain piece of real property belonging to the said estate which is fully described in said petition on file herein, to which reference is hereby made.

And it is further ordered that notice of the hearing of said petition be given to all persons interested in said estate in the manner required, by law, to-wit: by publishing a copy of this order for four successive weeks immediately preceding the said day of hearing, in the "Oakland Tribune," a newspaper of general circulation, published in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California.

Dated this 11th day of January, 1902.
S. P. HALL Judge.

Probate Notice.

In the Superior Court of the county of Alameda, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of Mary H. Peterson, deceased.

Notice of time set for proving will, etc.

Notice is hereby given, that a petition for the probate of the will of Mary H. Peterson, deceased, and for the issuance to John T. Peterson of letters testamentary thereon has been filed in this Court, and that Friday, the 7th day of February, A. D. 1902, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Courtroom of Department No. 4 of said Court, at the Court House in the city of Oakland, in said county of Alameda, has been set for the hearing of said petition and proving said will, when and where any person interested may appear and contest the same.

Dated January 22nd, 1902.

AGARD-RUSSELL CONTEST.

Judge Greene has sustained the objection of M. C. Chapman to the introduction as evidence of the minutes of the old Agard-Russell Grocery Company, in the suit for dissolution of partnership and accounting of money alleged to have been collected by George A. Russell. The objection was made on the ground that the directors acted illegally in distributing the capital stock of the corporation. The case has gone over for two weeks.

Announcement

Being through with our annual clearance sale, we now direct attention to things new. Each line is more complete, shows inside variety and is more abreast of the demands of the hour than ever before. The fact that this year we have two large outlets for our goods enables us to name prices even closer to actual cost than in the past.

Advance arrivals of Spring staples and novelties in Men's and Women's Tailoring are worthy of the closest inspection.

ATHENIANS HAVE ROYAL TIME IN CLUBROOMS.

President John A. Britton Makes a Happy Speech—An Interesting Program Carried Out.

The housewarming of the Athenian Club Saturday night was an event long to be remembered. Nothing like it was ever known in the history of the club, and that is saying a vast deal.

The richly furnished rooms of the new clubhouse at Fourteenth and Franklin streets was ablaze with light. Everything was new from the carpets to the building itself. Even the spirit of the club was new, or rather a rejuevenescence of the old time spirit. Everything was in rare accord for the occasion, and the festivities were up to the appointments.

Nearly all were members, only a few invited guests being present. After the company had been given time to mix and to inspect the new quarters, President Britton led the way to the jinks room on the fourth floor, and the chirps began with "Clinkity, Clink" by the Bohemian Club Quartet assisted by a chorus of twenty voices. Plaudits and an encore followed, and the revels were in full swing. Then President Britton delivered the address of welcome, which he did in a happy manner. He was given three cheers at the close. When he told how much the club owed to the public spirit and devotion of Will Henshaw, three cheers were given to that gentleman.

Walter J. Mathews and Dr. A. Fine were each given three cheers when Mr. Britton paid his tribute to their unselfish labors. Mr. Britton spoke as follows:

PRESIDENT BRITTON'S ADDRESS.

"Men of Athenia hail! And thrice hail!! In the name, and on behalf of the Directors I bid you a hearty and cordial welcome to your new home, to the halls of laughter, song, josh, where the cares of the world cannot enter and where our motto, 'Indulge the genial hour' is in veracity a reality—may your shadows individually and collectively never grow less, and may the gentle intabulations of the cash register convey to the waiting ears of your Directors the glad music of flowing wealth that they may carry out their motto, 'Elected for revenue only.'

"Tonight it is fitting that I should address you in a serious mood, for great responsibilities have been undertaken and happily achieved, and this grand monument of architectural beauty finished and occupied, speaks eloquently of anxious moments, of uncertain developments and of expectant hope.

"My tones shall be retrospective, introspective and perspective.

"Nearly eighteen years ago a coterie of 'good fellows' met and organized the Athenian Club; it grew and prospered, and the man who has beautified and adorned this building, General Ephe Mathews, was with it then and is with it now. Assisted by the spirits, the wit and the wisdom of such men as J. C. Martin, Dr. Woolsey, Bob Miller, E. H. Hamilton, E. H. Clough, J. M. Lathrop and scores of others, it sprung full fledged like Minerva from the hand of Jove, into full panoplied splendor, and justly took its place as the peer of all clubs, where dull care had no place to lay its head. Then, in the midst of plenty, plenteousness of mental and physical characteristics, it grew reckless, and the bird of misfortune perched upon its rafters; the song ceased, the laughter hushed and gloom settled like the dust of ages upon the owl of famous memory and 'too whit too who' became but a croak. But the spirits of the good fellows would not down, and untiring hands and loving hearts of Athenia tore down the bird of misfortune, robbed it of its feathers of black and cast it into the fire, and then Phoenix-like from the ashes came this bird of bright plumage. We have left the halls where resounded the voices of those famous not only here but in every land; but memory of them we bring with us into this new home, and for a moment let us tear aside the sable curtains that hide the past, and gazing down the aisle of memory, reverently with bowed heads and in holy mood lay a sprig of rosemary—that's for remembrance—before the niche of each of those whom we have loved in the past and who now stand and wait for us. 'Peace to the memory of the dead'—that is for yesterday. Heigho! Now for today and tomorrow.

"Introspectively—Honor to whom honor is due. This palatial home edifice has been made possible through the acts of one man, who, seeing the future of our city and with the faith that is in him, builded this house for us. Will Henshaw, I mean; let us give him three cheers. But Henshaw would have been a cipher in the matter of perfecting our house, had not Walter Mathews designed it just as he knew it should be designed, for he knows the whims, the wants, the likes and dislikes of each of us, and he has so designed, that we lack in this club what every club possesses, a knocker, and when tonight our Walter lights the fire upon the hearthstone, let us all witness the event and say God bless him, and reserve for his old age the chimney corner seat.

"In passing the bouquets tonight, I would be false to my trust did I fail to remember our Trojan, Dr. Fine, who has through all the vicissitudes of our experience, kept his shoulder to the wheel; has said like that mighty Cardinal, 'there is no such word as fail,' and to whom your thanks and ardent admiration is due, for your splendidly equipped home.

"You will be told tonight by those whose pens are dipped in the wells of oratory, rhetoric and of poetical fancy, of those who have stood in the ranks, of those noble fellows whom we remember always with 'sadness of thought. Let mine be the task to say a word of the future opening up with so much of bright promise.

"Here is to be the home of jest and youthful jollity.' Here friend meets friend with smiling, happy face. Within these walls may you long continue to meet, and may each succeeding day but increase your love and admiration for it. May it become, not only a rendezvous for the man of fun and frolic, but for the student and the philosopher, and may success ever attend it and you in all your ways."

THE NESTOR OF BOHEMIANS.

Uncle George Bromley, the octogenarian wit and epicure of the Bohemian Club, was given three cheers when he was introduced as the "Nestor of Bohemians." He delivered a characteristic ally witty speech in which he pointed his excuse for not appearing in a dress suit with a story so deliciously absurd that it set the crowd in an uproar.

Then Ned Hamilton read a paper that fairly coruscated and flashed with witty allusion and apt illustration. During the reading he kept his hearers in a roar of laughter.

George Knight of the Bohemian Club sang "The Chimes" from "Robin Hood," and Mr. Bakewell gave a coon song with rare effect.

Judge Harry Melvin read a paper giving a humorous description of a visit to the Athenian Club a hundred years hence. It was full of gentle satire and happy bits of humor.

J. E. Baker followed with a paper hitting off the foibles and peculiarities of various club members, and C. R. Lewis read a paper reminiscent of the early club days, spiced with tales of the card room and a famous demijohn incident in the days of Steward Vance.

The Bohemian Club drinking song by Tom Rickard and "Schneider's Band" ended the chirps.

In the supper room there was more music and several happy speeches. In the cafe Billy Foote made a side-splitting impromptu speech in which he bade defiance to all the critics who took his name in vain in the chirps. The rest of the evening was given over to having a general good time. They all had it.

SAY FAREWELL TO DANIEL C. GRANT.

There was a pathetic leave-taking at the Piedmont baths Saturday evening when Daniel C. Grant, an Oakland High School graduate and former secretary of the Piedmont baths, bade good-bye to his old associates. Mr. Grant has been appointed auditor of the Portland City and Oregon Railway and yesterday he left for Portland and will take charge of his new office today. Before taking his departure he was given a farewell treat by the employes of the Piedmont baths, who have so long been associated with him in a business way. Mr. Grant is a member of the local lodge of Elks, and as a fitting token of their esteem and a remembrance of the long business and social connections they enjoyed with him here, a handsome ring mounted with an Elks' head was purchased by the employes of the baths and Mrs. Emma Moore was selected to present it to Mr. Grant. After Mrs. Moore made her presentation speech, it was some time before Mr. Grant dared use his voice. He was visibly affected, but finally got his voice and said: "I thank you and shall always wear this ring with pride. While I esteem this token of your friendship highly, the words from you delivered by Mrs. Moore touch the bottom of my heart and will remain with me to the day of my death."

Following is the presentation speech delivered by Mrs. Emma Moore:

"The name of Grant has long been associated in the minds of Americans with qualities of manliness, bravery and leadership of men. With us, the employes of this company, the name suggests not only these noble qualities, but also such fairness, generosity and urbanity as have endeared the bearer of that name to all of us. We have always found in you, Mr. Grant, a true friend and a just officer, one who although demanding prompt and strict obedience to the rules of the company, never enforced those rules in an arbitrary or unkind manner. By your conduct you have won the confidence, esteem and fidelity of the employes and in your departure we feel that we are losing a true friend. As a token of our friendship we have bought this gift which, to use the language of the lawyers, we now 'give, grant and confirm' to you. May it ever be to you a token of our continuing affection, and may your future career be as bright and fair as are the heartfelt good wishes which accompany this gift."

TEAMSTER MEETS WITH A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

While driving a load of hay into a barn at Twenty-fourth street and Telegraph avenue Saturday night, Philip Krall was crushed between the wagon seat and the top of the doorway of the barn and his back was broken. He will be placed in a plaster cast, in which he must remain in one position for three months, and it is the opinion of Drs. Stratton, Porter and Rowe that he may recover. The fact that his legs were not paralyzed, the physicians say, is evidence that the spinal cord was not seriously injured, notwithstanding the fact that the vertebrae were separated more than an inch. Krall is now at the Receiving Hospital, where he will undergo the painful operation to save his life.

MEETING OF OIL MEN.

Superior Judge Hall this morning gave his decision in the now famous suit of Dr. F. J. Schwarzchild against the People's Express Company. The decision was in favor of the doctor.

In 1899 Schwarzchild decided upon a trip to Europe, and he stored his dental instruments with the Whitney Express Company, which was afterward purchased by the People's Company. He did not prepay the storage and on June 24, 1899, the company sold the instruments, which he claimed were worth $3,000, for $116 at public auction. A case of dental tools, he alleged, worth $1,000, was sold to Max Marcuse for ninety cents. This, however, was disproved by the testimony. When the dentist returned from Europe he demanded a settlement, and when it was refused he brought suit to recover the $3,000. Judge Hall gave judgment for $750, with interest from June 24, 1899, the date of the sale.

PLEITNER WINS.

In the suit to quiet title brought by C. C. Clay against the Alameda Railway Company, Henry A. Pleitner and others, the Superior Court has rendered a decree in favor of Henry A. Pleitner. The lot in controversy was known as the Laundry Farm depot lot, located at Fruitvale. H. A. Berlin and A. A. Moore represented the plaintiff, C. C. Clay, and Gilbert Wyman represented the defendant, Henry A. Pleitner. This case has been pending a long time in the courts.

WILL IMPROVE THE TWELFTH STREET DAM.

COUNCILMAN WIXSON SAYS THAT ALL OBSTACLES HAVE BEEN OVERCOME.

"It seems as if we had about overcome the obstacles to the improvement of the Twelfth street dam," said Councilman Wixson.

"The improvements may now be taken as an accepted fact, for it will be carried through as speedily as possible. As to the cost, that will depend upon the estimates of the City Engineer. We wil vote whatever money is required to do the work properly.

"I wish to state that Mr. Adams has acted commendably in this matter. When Mr. Schaffer and myself went to see him about donating a strip to widen the dam, he met us half way, and agreed to donate a strip twenty feet wide. I don't think we will buy any land, but Thirteenth street will be macadmaized to Fallon street for an outlet. That is my idea of what will be done.

"I think the method of procedure will be to pass two ordinances at the same time—one declaring Twelfth street to be a boulevard, and the other adopting specifications and appropriating the money to pay for carrying out the work in accordance with them. These ordinance will be prepared by City Attorney Johnson, and will be drawn up with a view to avoiding all delays and difficulties. It is the intention to push the work through at once."

HARSH WORDS FOR A TRIAL JURY.

Charles Merrill, charged with robbery and found guilty of petty larceny by a jury, was sent to the County Jail for six months this morning. In imposing sentence, Judge Melvin took occasion to criticise the jury.

Attorney L. S. Church asked that the verdict be set aside on the ground of the defendant's good character.

He called Jailer George Taylor to show that Merrill had behaved well in jail, and Taylor testified that Merrill could have escaped with ease with the other jail breakers if he had so desired. On the contrary, however, he had given information that had aided in apprehending the escaped prisoners.

"I am bound by the verdict of the jury," said Judge Melvin, "but I can't understand by what process of reasoning they could reach such a decision. The prisoner was charged with robbery in holding up a Chinese, yet they return a verdict of petty larceny. It is incomprehensible, to say the least. The motion to set aside the verdict is denied and the prisoner is sentenced to serve six months in the County Jail."

District Attorney Allen also criticised the jury and called attention to the fact that it was not Merrill's first offense. The following composed the jury: Daniel Martenstein, Edwin Sutherland, Jacob Bannel, C. A. Broad, D. C. Borland, F. J. Cunha, E. H. Crane, Owen Feeney, D. H. Frye, S. L. Gibbs, J. Keller and A. Milwain.

SOCIETY WILL HEAR MME. NORDICA

Nordica's recital at the Macdonough Theater Wednesday evening will be somewhat of a society event. Mrs. F. M. Smith and Mrs. C. O. G. Miller will each have a box party, and others have been made up throughout the house. The program is one of rare excellence, and Mme. Nordica is in superb health.

MINISTER'S WIFE TO MAKE CONTEST

DOES NOT PROPOSE TO ALLOW REV. BRYAN TO TAKE A DIVORCE.

Mrs. Emma M. Bryan does not propose to allow her husband, the Rev. John T. Bryan, to divorce her without a fight, and she will file a cross-complaint in which a co-respondent—a young woman of good family in Barrie, Ontario—will be named. Her attorneys, Wright & Lukens, are at work now upon the answer to her husband's suit, and in it she will deny each of his allegations of cruelty. It was not until she had laid her troubles before Bishop Nichols, she says, that her clerical husband trumped up the charges of cruelty.

Bryan recently resigned as rector of an Episcopal Church in Stockton to take a post-graduate course at Berkeley, and Mrs. Bryan for several months has been living a secluded life in Oakland. In discussing her troubles Mrs. Bryan said:

"Every charge of cruelty made is false. I have seen the complaint and it is really silly, so ridiculous are its contents.

"But I am not asleep. I have a charge to make against Mr. Bryan that will make him cringe. Poor man, I feel almost sorry for him when I think of the facts which I will make known. If he thinks that I have tried to injure him with his superiors in the church let him wait until my answer is filed.

"I have suffered. Now it is his turn. I will prove his relations with a young woman now living in Barrie, Ontario. Before we came West his conduct became notorious. We went to Colorado and she married. She was a social favorite, a daughter of one of the town's leading families.

"Early after our marriage I had given him one of my photographs. This he threw to one side. His bureau he covered with pictures of that woman in every pose and every costume.

"I begged my husband to have some respect for the vows he had made at his ordination, but he laughed at me. I asked him to reform his ways for the sake of our son, Arthur, even if he had no love for me. I might as well have talked to a stone. Still the letters went and still they came, and every few weeks he received a new photograph of the woman in Canada, whom he called his 'sweetheart.'"

In regard to her husband's charges Mrs. Bryan said:

"Two of those incidents mentioned, that about my scratching his neck and that about my throwing oil into his face, were manufactured by him.

"But as regards forcing the food into his mouth and nearly choking him while he was ill at Stockton, I remember that he had not eaten for several days. I placed a spoonful of food to his lips. He refused to take it, and I took it away. That is as near as I came to choking him."
